(4) in subsection (d)(1)(E), by striking "2000" and inserting "2003".

(2) The amendment made by this section shall be effective upon the date of enactment of this Act.

Sect. 802. An application for relief properly filed by a national of Guatemala or El Salvador under section 203 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act which was filed on or before the date of enactment of this Act, and on which a final administrative determination has not been made, may be converted by the applicant to an application for adjustment of status under the provisions of section 202 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act, as amended, upon the payment of any fees, and in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Attorney General, shall prescribe by regulation. The Attorney General shall not be required to refund any fees paid in connection with an application filed by a national of Guatemala or El Salvador under section 203 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act.

Sect. 803. An application for adjustment of status properly filed by a national of Haiti under the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act of 1998 which was filed on or before the date of enactment of this Act, and on which a final administrative determination has not been made, may be converted by the Attorney General, in her unreviewable discretion, to also constitute an application for adjustment of status under the provisions of section 202 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act, as amended.

Sect. 804. (a) Section 202 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act is amended—

(1) in subsection (a)(1)(B), by adding insertions after "date of enrollment"; "or the Attorney General may, in her unreviewable discretion, waive the grounds of inadmissibility specified in sections 212(a)(9)(A)(i) and section 212(a)(9)(C)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act for humanitarian purposes, to assure family unity, or when it is otherwise in the public interest;"

(2) in subsection (a), by redesignating paragraph (2) as paragraph (3), and by inserting after paragraph (1) the following new paragraph:

"(3) INAPPLICABILITY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS.—In determining the eligibility of an alien described in subsections (b) or (d) for either adjustment of status under this section or other relief necessary to establish eligibility for such adjustment, the provisions of section 241(a)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall not apply. In addition, an alien otherwise eligible pursuant to sections 212(a)(9)(A) or (C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act may apply for the Attorney General's consent to reapply for admission to the United States for the purpose of adjustment of status under this Act, provided such an application is made by the Attorney General, in her unreviewable discretion, to also constitute an application for adjustment of status under this Act; and"

(b) in paragraph (1), by adding the heading to read "ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS.—";

(c) by striking paragraph (3)(A), and inserting the following paragraph:

"(A) The alien entered the United States on or before the date of enactment of the Department of Justice Appropriations Act, 2001; and"

(D) in paragraph (1)(B), by inserting after "except that" the following: "(i) in the case of such a spouse, stepchild, or unmarried child of such a spouse, or stepchild, the qualifying marriage was entered into before the date of enactment of this Act, and on which a final administrative determination has not been made, may be converted by the Attorney General, in her unreviewable discretion, to also constitute an application for adjustment of status under the provisions of section 202 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act, as amended;"

(2) INAPPLICABILITY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS.—In determining the eligibility of an alien described in subsection (b) or (d) for either adjustment of status under this section or other relief necessary to establish eligibility for such adjustment, the provisions of section 241(a)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall not apply. In addition, an alien otherwise eligible pursuant to sections 212(a)(9)(A) or (C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act may apply for the Attorney General's consent to reapply for admission to the United States for the purpose of adjustment of status under this Act, provided such an application is made by the Attorney General, in her unreviewable discretion, to also constitute an application for adjustment of status under this Act; and"

(b) in paragraph (1), by adding the heading to read "ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS.—";

(c) by striking paragraph (3)(A), and inserting the following paragraph:

"(A) The alien entered the United States on or before the date of enactment of the Department of Justice Appropriations Act, 2001; and"

(D) in paragraph (1)(B), by inserting after "except that" the following: "(i) in the case of such a spouse, stepchild, or unmarried child of such a spouse, or stepchild, the qualifying marriage was entered into before the date of enactment of this Act, and on which a final administrative determination has not been made, may be converted by the Attorney General, in her unreviewable discretion, to also constitute an application for adjustment of status under the provisions of section 202 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act, as amended;"

(2) INAPPLICABILITY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS.—In determining the eligibility of an alien described in subsections (b) or (d) for either adjustment of status under this section or other relief necessary to establish eligibility for such adjustment, the provisions of section 241(a)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall not apply. In addition, an alien otherwise eligible pursuant to sections 212(a)(9)(A) or (C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act may apply for the Attorney General's consent to reapply for admission to the United States for the purpose of adjustment of status under this Act, provided such an application is made by the Attorney General, in her unreviewable discretion, to also constitute an application for adjustment of status under the provisions of section 202 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act, as amended;"

(2) INAPPLICABILITY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS.—In determining the eligibility of an alien described in subsection (b) or (d) for either adjustment of status under this section or other relief necessary to establish eligibility for such adjustment, the provisions of section 241(a)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act shall not apply. In addition, an alien otherwise eligible pursuant to sections 212(a)(9)(A) or (C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act may apply for the Attorney General's consent to reapply for admission to the United States for the purpose of adjustment of status under this Act, provided such an application is made by the Attorney General, in her unreviewable discretion, to also constitute an application for adjustment of status under the provisions of section 202 of the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act, as amended;"
as a condition of submitting or granting such application, file a separate motion to reopen, considering such order. Such an alien may be required to seek a stay of such an order in accordance with subsection (c) to prevent the execution of that order pending the adjudication of the application for adjustment of status. If the Attorney General denies a stay of a final order of deportation, or removal, or if the Attorney General renders a final administrative determination to deny the application for adjustment of status, the order shall be effective and enforceable to the same extent as if the application had not been made. If the Attorney General grants the application for adjustment of status, the Attorney General shall cancel the order.

(4) by adding at the end the following: “However, subsection (a) shall not apply to an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence, unless he or she is applying for a visa in lieu of parole in deportation or removal proceedings.”;

(5) in subsection (c)(1), by adding at the end the following: “Nothing in this Act shall require the Attorney General to stay the removal of an alien who is ineligible for adjustment of status under this Act.”;

(b) in paragraph (1)—

(A) by amending the subsection heading to read “SPOUSES, CHILDREN, AND UNMARRIED SONS AND DAUGHTERS.—”;

(B) in paragraph (1), by amending the heading to read “ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS.—”;

(C) by striking paragraph (1)(A), and inserting the following new subparagraph:

“(1) the alien entered the United States on or before the date of enactment of the Department of Justice Appropriations Act, 2001.”;

(D) in paragraph (1)(B), by inserting after “except that” the following: “(1) in the case of such a spouse, stepchild, or unmarried stepson or stepdaughter, the qualifying marriage was entered into before the date of enactment of this Act.”;

(E) in paragraph (1), by adding at the end the following new subparagraph:

“(2) the alien applies for such adjustment before July 3, 2003.”;

(F) by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(3) ELIGIBILITY OF CERTAIN SPOUSES AND CHILDREN FOR ISSUANCE OF IMMIGRANT VISAS.—

“(A) In accordance with regulations to be promulgated by the Attorney General and the Secretary of State, upon approval of an application for adjustment of status to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under subsection (a), an alien who is the spouse or child of the alien being granted such status may be issued a visa for admission to the United States as an immigrant following to join the principal applicant, provided that the spouse or child—

“(i) meets the requirements in subparagraphs (B) and (D); and “(ii) applies for such a visa within a time period to be established by regulation.

“(B) The Secretary of State may retain fees to recover the cost of immigrant visa application processing and issuance for certain spouses and children of aliens whose applications for adjustment of status under subsection (a) have been approved, provided that such fees—

“(i) shall be deposited as an offsetting collection to any Department of State appropriation to recover the cost of such processing and issuance; and

“(ii) shall be available until expended for the same purposes of such appropriation to support consular activities.”;

(7) in subsection (g), by inserting after “permanent residence” the following: “or an immigrant classification”;

(8) in subsection (h), by inserting after “(1)” and “(2)” and respectively, and inserting after subsection (h) the following new subparagraph:

“(i) shall be deposited as an offsetting collection to any Department of State appropriation to support consular activities.”;

(9) in subsection (i), by inserting after “furnished under contract to the” the following: “Attorney General.”

(c) in paragraph (1)—

(10) in subsection (a)(3), (a)(4), and (a)(8) of this Act shall be effective as if included in the enactment of the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act of 1998. The amendments made by subsections (a)(1), (a)(2), (a)(5), (a)(6), and (a)(7) shall be effective as of the date of enactment of this Act.

Sec. 806. (a) Notwithstanding any time and number limitations imposed by law on motions to reopen, a national of Haiti who, on the date of enactment of this Act, has a final administrative denial of an application for adjustment of status under the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act of 1988, and is eligible for adjustment of status under that Act by the amendments made by this title, may file one motion to reopen exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings to have the application considered again. All such motions shall be filed within 180 days of the date of enactment of this Act. The scope of any proceeding reopened on this basis shall be limited to a determination of the alien’s eligibility for adjustment of status under the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act of 1988.

(b) Notwithstanding any time and number limitations imposed by law on motions to reopen, a national of Cuba or Nicaragua who, on the date of enactment of this Act, has a final administrative denial of an application for adjustment of status under the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act, and who is made eligible for adjustment of status under that Act by the amendments made by this title, may file one motion to reopen exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings to have the application considered again. All such motions shall be filed within 180 days of the date of enactment of this Act.
