

nominee was confirmed by January 22, unanimously, by voice—every single one. The only one that was not was the Attorney General, and the reason for that was that the Clinton administration had withdrawn a couple of nominees. The eventual nominee for Attorney General, Janet Reno, was confirmed 98-0 after very short debate.

I just make those points to clarify the record. Eight years ago Congress moved very expeditiously to confirm all nominees. All were confirmed by January 21—by voice vote, I might add. The only recorded vote was Janet Reno and that was 98-0.

THE OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY PLANE CRASH

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, tragedy struck my State, as members of the Oklahoma State basketball team and news organizations were killed in a tragic plane crash just outside of Denver.

Of course any plane crash is not anticipated, but this was especially painful and tragic because it snuffed out the lives of 10 outstanding individuals, who were well known on campus and throughout the state. Two team members were killed. They were outstanding athletes.

Eight other individuals that were on the plane were a part of the team in various capacities and it is a real tragedy, a tragedy to our State and to our university.

Today there is a memorial service taking place at Oklahoma State University to memorialize these 10 exceptional individuals.

One of the individuals was Nate Fleming. His sister served as an intern in my office. He was a nephew of one of my best friends and an outstanding athlete. Nate was a National Honor Society member and valedictorian of his class. He was only 20 years old.

Another team member, Daniel Lawson, 21, was a junior and played guard. He was originally from Detroit, Michigan. Another was Pat Noyes, 27. Pat was director of basketball operations at Oklahoma State University.

Brian Luinstra, 29, the athletic trainer, leaves a wife and two children.

Will Hancock, 31, was in his fifth year as coordinator of media relations. His wife, Karen, is the coach of the OSU women's soccer team and they had their first child just this last November.

Jared Weiberg, 22, was a student manager and nephew of the Big 12 commissioner, Kevin Weiberg. Jared was a part of the team and will most certainly be missed by all.

Bill Teegins, 48, was the play-by-play voice of the Oklahoma State University Cowboys for many seasons and was sports director for Channel 9 in Oklahoma City. He was honored several times as sportscaster of the year. He was known by everyone across the state and needless to say, he did an outstanding job.

Kendall Durfey, 38, was a producer and engineer for the OSU radio network. Denver Mills, the pilot, from Oklahoma City, was well liked and was a great aviator.

Bjorn Falstrom was the copilot, originally from Sweden.

This is a real loss for their families, for Oklahoma State University, for Oklahoma and the nation. The contributions these individuals made to the State and to the University will always be remembered. We extend our condolences to Coach Sutton and to President James Halligan and the extended family of Oklahoma State University. It is with deep sadness that we extend our prayers to their families, and to their friends in mourning such a great loss. Certainly, they will be missed.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair thanks the Senator from Oklahoma for his eloquent statement.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Under the previous order, leadership time is reserved.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Kansas, Mr. BROWNBACK.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I believe under a previous agreement I have 15 minutes allocated to me; is that correct?

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator was to have until 10:15. It is now 10:12.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that I be allowed to speak for up to 15 minutes as in morning business.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection?

Mr. DURBIN. Reserving the right to object, and I will not object, but I want to reserve 15 minutes in morning business after Senator BROWNBACK.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Kansas is recognized for 15 minutes.

Mr. BROWNBACK. I thank the Chair.

MOMENT OF SILENCE

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I note with sadness what took place at Oklahoma State. That was a terrible tragedy. I was reading about it in our papers in Kansas. That happened to Wichita State University about 30 years ago. It still has not really healed. Somehow when you take that young life and that vibrant seed with the team, it really grabs a hole out of you that takes a long time to fill.

My thoughts immediately turned to Wichita State when that happened to Oklahoma State. My thoughts and prayers are with the Senator and with Oklahoma.

Mr. President, I wonder if it would be appropriate to have a moment of silent prayer for Oklahoma, for the tragedy they have experienced.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. There will be a moment of silence in the Chamber in memory of those who died.

(Moment of silence.)

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Kansas is recognized.

AMERICA NEEDS A TAX CUT

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I rise today to speak on a different issue, one of great importance and one I think we are going to see take place, and that is overdue tax relief for the American people.

The Congressional Budget Office has just announced the 10-year budget surplus projection has increased to $5.6 trillion. When I came to the House of Representatives in 1994, it would have been hard to fathom numbers of this nature, but through fiscal restraint, a plan put in place to limit the amount of spending over a period of years, and a healthy, growing economy, we are now to the point where we are projecting and experiencing budget surpluses. It is wonderful that we have this opportunity.

I also point out to the American public, in case you are worried the Republicans in Congress are taking their eyes off the ball of fiscal discipline and paying down the debt, we are paying down the debt, and we will continue to pay down the debt.

Over the past 3 years, we paid down over $360 billion of public debt—$360 billion over 3 years. We will continue at that pace, if not greater, of reducing the Federal debt. We are going to continue to do that. But it also is possible, and I suggest necessary, for us to do the needed tax cuts and tax relief the American public deserves. America's taxpayers are overpaying the bill for their Government. More specifically, it is a tax on their success. It is, in fact, a tax on the robust economic growth we have experienced and which now seems to be slowing.

Of the $5.6 trillion, we have already committed to save $2.7 trillion for Social Security, and we should do that. That still leaves almost $3 trillion. This is separate and distinct from the Social Security trust fund. We have put that in a lockbox. The Republican Congress said we are building a lockbox; we are going to put the Social Security surplus in it. That is the $2.7 trillion of Social Security income, leaving $3 trillion over the next 10 years for tax cuts and debt reduction. We can do both. We must do both.
