

name veterans to public posts. The municipal court system preceded the present system of district courts, and there was political guessing as to who would be named by the governor. His Army experience served him well, and Dick served four years.

After the departure of Bove and Billado to other jobs, Bernie Dick ran his own practice for a while, and in 1949 formed a new legal association with Donald A. Hackel and Richard A. Hull. It was the latest step in a long and varied Rutland legal career.

Bernie, you will be sorely missed by all those who knew you, and by an entire community who benefitted from your knowledge, hard work and many talents.●

A TRIBUTE TO BARTLEY J. COSTELLO

● Mr. JEFFORDS. I rise today to pay tribute to a great Vermonter and a native son from my hometown of Rutland, Bartley J. Costello.

Bart will be remembered by all who knew him for his commitment to church and family, dedication to community and country, and generosity to his fellow man. A lifelong resident of Rutland, he gave much of himself to our great city, through charities, community organizations and Christ the King Church.

Bart was educated at Holy Innocents Primary School, Mount St. Joseph Academy, the University of Vermont and Albany Law School. His first job was as a teacher at the Muddy Brook School in Williston. He returned to Rutland to work at Howe Scale Co. and served as the assistant Rutland City Treasurer before joining the U.S. Army Air Corps and serving his country in World War II. He reached the rank of Captain before being discharged at the end of the war and returning home to Rutland.

A lawyer in Rutland for forty years with the firm of Webber and Costello, later Webber, Costello and Chapman, Bart was a distinguished member of the Bar, deeply respected and admired by my father, Chief Justice of the Vermont Supreme Court.

Bart was an excellent trial lawyer and a match for the best. And he had a wonderful sense of humor. Bart loved to tell the story of a jury selection when an aunt of his on the panel remained silent when the opposing attorney asked if any of the jurors knew Mr. Costello. Later, after excusing his aunt for obvious reasons, Bart asked her why she had kept quiet. "Well," she said, "I felt you would need all the help you could get."

I also knew him as an avid golfer and consummate sportsman. He and his lovely wife, Catherine, who survives him, were the perfect golfing couple, courteous and competitive, fun-loving and intense.

Bart, as well as Catherine, were blessed with four outstanding sons, Bartley III and Thomas, who are trial lawyers in Albany, NY and Brattleboro, Brian, an award winning school teacher in Rutland, and Barry, a Rear Admiral in the U.S. Navy, currently with the Pentagon staff.

He served his community on many boards and organizations. He was a past Grand Knight at the Knights of Columbus, President of Vermont State Holy Name Society, Rutland Chamber of Commerce, Rutland Country Club and Rutland Regional Medical Center. He was elected to and served on the board of directors of Marble Savings Bank and the Rutland City School Board.

The Rutland Daily Herald had high praise for Bart, stating that he, "... left lasting marks for good on [his] native city." He was a man who loved life and was loved by all who knew him. We won't forget you, Bart.●
