

differences between rural western States and more urban, industrialized eastern States. I emphasized the need to develop different solutions to environmental problems in different areas, and also indicated my support for incentive-based approaches to improving our environment. I have been pleased to hear some of Governor Whitman's preliminary statements on that subject. However, I also believe we cannot abandon enforcement efforts to improve compliance with our Nation's environmental laws. Governor Whitman will have to strike an appropriate balance between the two. It will be a difficult task, but after meeting with her and reviewing her record, I believe she is up to the job.

President Bush made a good selection when he asked Governor Whitman to head the EPA. She assumes a tremendous new responsibility, and I look forward to working with her in her new role as Administrator.
