CONGRATULATING THE BALTIMORE RAVENS FOR WINNING SUPER BOWL XXXV

Mr. SESSIONS. I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 15, submitted earlier today by Senators SARBANES and MIKULSKI.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 15) congratulating the Baltimore Ravens for winning Super Bowl XXXV.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Ms. MIKULSKI. I stand to honor the Baltimore Ravens who soared over the Super Bowl winning 34-7.

I also want to honor the city of Baltimore. Baltimore has often been overlooked and under valued.

Baltimore is the comeback city: the crime rate is dropping; test scores are rising; we are building a digital harbor; and now we are the Super Bowl champs for the first time since 1971.

We want the world to get to know Baltimore as a dynamic city, a city of communities—that's unified around our values, our patriotism, and our Ravens, a city with a great football heritage—and a great football future.

I congratulate the Baltimore fans, loyal and with high energy. They spent 11 years without any team at all after our Colts snuck out of town. We now have the Ravens—and we're the Super Bowl champs. We deserved this win.

I congratulate owner Art Modell, who won his first Super Bowl in 40 years of owning the team; head coach Brian Billick, who won after only 2 years as a head coach; Ray Lewis, named most valuable player; the Ravens defense, one of the best defensive teams ever, making records and Super Bowl history, allowing just 165 points in the 16-game regular season, and had caught four interceptions during the Super Bowl.

The Ravens' offense and special teams scored big. Quarterback, Trent Dilfer threw the first touchdown pass of the game and had no interceptions; Brandon Stokely caught a 38-yard touchdown pass; Jermaine Lewis, a Maryland native and former Maryland Terrapin, returned an 84-yard kick-off to put the game out of reach.

The resolution we are passing today commends the loyalty, community spirit and enthusiasm of the Baltimore fans, applauds the Baltimore Ravens for their high standards of character, perseverance, professionalism, excellence and teamwork, praises the Ravens for their community service, congratulates the Ravens and the New York Giants for a hard-fought, sportsmanlike Super Bowl, congratulates the Ravens and their fans for the Super Bowl victory, and recognizes the
