may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on this legislation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. ISAKSON) is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California? There was no objection. The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. Speaker, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. SPRATT) mentioned a golf course. The Republicans did beat the Democrats in the annual golf tournament yesterday, with the leadership of the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. OHXLEY). I know he will be interested in that.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion carried by the gentleman from California (Mr. HUNTER) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, House Resolution 195.

Mr. HUNTER, Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays. The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the yeas present have voted in the affirmative.

Mr. HUNTER, Mr. Speaker, that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, House Resolution 195.

Mr. Speaker, the House in recess until approximately noon.

Accordingly (at 11 o'clock and 44 minutes a.m.), the House stood in recess until approximately noon.

RECESS

The House having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON) at noon.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Chair will now put the question on motions to suspend the rules on which further proceedings were postponed earlier today.

The Speaker will take in following order: HRES. 195, by the yeas and nays; HRES. 195, by the yeas and nays. The Chair will reduce to 5 minutes for any electronic vote after the first such vote in this series.

HONORING PAUL D. COVERDELL

The Speaker pro tempore. The pending business is the question of suspending the rules and passing the Senate bill, S. 360, which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on International Relations and ordered to be printed.

As required by section 401(c) of the National Emergencies Act, 50 U.S.C. 1641(c), and section 204(c) of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. 1703(c), I transmit hereunder with a 6-month periodic report on the national emergency with respect to Sierra Leone that was declared in Executive Order 13194 of January 18, 2001.

GEOFFREY J. FLEMING.

The Speaker pro tempore laid before the House the following message in writing from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on International Relations and ordered to be printed.

To the Congress of the United States:

As required by section 401(c) of the National Emergencies Act, 50 U.S.C. 1641(c), and section 204(c) of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. 1703(c), I transmit hereunder with a 6-month periodic report on the national emergency with respect to Sierra Leone that was declared in Executive Order 13194 of January 18, 2001.

GEOFFREY J. FLEMING.
