regarding drinking, smoking and drug use.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I am pleased to join my colleague Senator BIDEN in introducing a bi-partisan resolution designating September 24, 2001 as “Family Day: A Day to Eat Dinner With Your Children. This resolution recognizes the importance of eating dinner as a family, especially as a way to keep children from using illegal drugs, tobacco, and alcohol.

Many of us here in this Chamber are parents, and some of us are even grand parents. We know the trials and difficulties of raising children. But we also know the rewards, as a father, one of my proudest moments is seeing the success of my children as they raise their own families. What I know, what many parents have come to realize, and what we are trying to emphasize through Family Day, is spending time with your children, having dinner with them regularly, is one of the best ways to develop and maintain a healthy family, and encourage our children to make healthy choices.

Senator BIDEN spoke about the most recent survey from the National Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse. And while the statistics here are alarming, there are also hopeful ones. Kids listen. Teens do recognize what their parents say, “They see what their parents do. Communication is the key to all of this, and communication at the dinner table is a wonderful place for this to happen.” His remarks in this resolution designating September 24, 2001, as “Family Day: A Day to Eat Dinner With Your Children.” I urge our colleagues to join us.
