

SENATE—Tuesday, September 4, 2001

The Senate met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable HARRY REID, a Senator from the State of Nevada.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Gracious Father, You are the source of strength when we trust You, the source of courage when we ask for Your help, the source of hope when we wonder if we can make a difference, the source of peace in the stresses and strains of applying truth to the formation of public policy. Bless the Senators as they return from the August recess to a heavy and demanding fall schedule of the ongoing challenges and opportunities in this 107th Congress. Help them to reaffirm the basic absolutes of faithfulness and obedience to You: Remind them that they are here by Your permission; rekindle in them a holy passion for social righteousness; restore a profound patriotism for this Nation You have blessed so magnificently; and refract the eyes of their minds to see Your plan for America spelled out in the specifics of the legislation to be debated and decided in these next weeks.

We ask for Your encouraging presence and enabling power for TOM DASCHLE and TRENT LOTT, HARRY REID and DON NICKLES as they exemplify greatness in cooperative leadership of the Senate. All of us—Senators, officers, and the over 6,000 people who form the Senate family—humble ourselves to receive Your inspiration and dedicate our work to serve You as the only sovereign of this land.

We express our profound sympathy to the family of former House of Representatives Chaplain, James Ford. Comfort and bless them in this time of grief and loss. You are our only Lord and Saviour.

Amen.

The Honorable HARRY REID led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

THE SENATE AGENDA

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, all of us are pleased to be back, able to go on and finish the business we have yet to do. There is a lot of it, of course. I have read from time to time that we have been on vacation. I have to tell you, it is scarcely a vacation. All of us spend this time, as we should, traveling in our States and visiting with the people we represent. Frankly, it is a real pleasure and honor to travel about Wyoming this time of year. It is important that we reflect on what we have heard, some of the issues laid before us, some of the notions of the people at home. After all, it is our responsibility to be here to represent those people.

There are a number of things we all hear about and hear about repeatedly while we are in our States. One of them is the tax issue, the idea of tax reduction, and specifically the returns that have been made during this period of time. Many people have received their $600 or $300. I heard a great deal about that. I heard a great deal of praise and support for tax relief, having an opportunity to receive those dollars that were deemed to be surplus. They were not dollars that belonged to Washington; they were dollars that belonged to the taxpayers.

I heard that quite often. Frankly, I was very pleased to hear that and also to share the belief that the return of tax dollars certainly is appropriate in a time of a slowing-down economy.

We also hear a great deal about budgets. Most people do understand that, depending on your point of view about the size of government and the involvement of government, sticking to budgets is a very important issue. Of course, it is very significant now as we enter into this last month. We are supposed to pass all the appropriations bills and come up with next year's spending outline during these next several weeks. That is a relatively short time to do that.

The majority of people I spoke with said: You passed a budget; stay with the budget and a 4 percent increase, which is a reasonable increase; stay with it. Of course, that is not what we have done over the last number of years. I think that shows a good deal of knowledge about what is happening.

In Wyoming, where we are involved in the production of energy, whether it be gas or oil or coal, there is a great deal of interest in energy policy. That is something we have not had for a very long time. The President set one forth and, as a matter of fact, the House has passed an energy bill. We have not. It is one of the issues that ought to be a priority. The folks at home indicated to me it ought to be a priority.
