IN HONOR OF OUR GREAT COLLEAGUES

(Mr. HASTERT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HASTERT. Madam Speaker, it is my sad duty to announce to the House of Representatives the death of the late Honorable FLOYD SPENCE of South Carolina on August 16, 2001. His funeral was held in Columbia, South Carolina, on August 21, 2001.

Later today, the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. SPRATT), the dean of the South Carolina delegation, will offer a resolution in memory of our beloved colleague. Members are invited to contact the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. SPRATT) or the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. GRAHAM) if they wish to participate in this tribute. Members will be advised of plans for a subsequent Special Order in memory of FLOYD SPENCE. I think we will all remember FLOYD SPENCE for his love of this Nation, his love of this House, and his strong and spirited defense always for the armed services members of this country.

It is also my very sad duty to announce to the House the death of our Chaplain Emeritus, James David Ford on August 27, 2001. Jim Ford had been the beloved Chaplain of the House for 21 years, from 1979 until his retirement in the year 2000. A memorial ceremony honoring Chaplain Ford's life and his service to this House will be held on Tuesday, September 11, at 1 p.m. in the Cannon Caucus Room. I extend my personal condolences to Chaplain Ford's family and his many friends during this time of bereavement.

HEARTFELT CONDOLENCES TO THE RILEY FAMILY

(Mr. ARMEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ARMEY. Madam Speaker, those of us who are privileged to work in this wonderful institution and get to know one another and our families, we should take the time every now and then to reflect on what a great privilege we have to know one another.

Two or three years ago I made a trip to Alabama for BOB RILEY. Lord have mercy, Madam Speaker, I ended up at the wrong airport late, frustrated, tired, and disconcerted. All of a sudden, there appeared right there in the lobby of that airport two beautiful ladies: BOB's wonderful wife, Patsy, and his beautiful daughter, Jenice. They resolved that they would get me to my appointed round on time, and I have kidded with the two ladies for years afterwards about how it was such a pleasure to see so much of Alabama, but I had not known it was a blur, as Jenice drove that car.

Jenice, a beautiful child, and clearly the apple of her daddy's eye, was at that time and since having a very private battle with cancer. Most of us did not know that because she was so cheerful. This child would lift my spirits on the occasions that I saw her. She was always upbeat, always happy, always optimistic, always enthusiastic, always full of praise for her Lord.

Madam Speaker, she was taken from us during this recess period to heaven. I know it hurts BOB and Patsy and all of us that had the privilege of knowing this wonderful young lady.

Madam Speaker, I rise at this moment to say, for what little comfort I can offer BOB and Patsy, no eye has ever seen, no mind can know the glory and the beauty of Jenice today. As our Lord and Savior told us, if it were not true, I would have told you. Your loss is felt and shared by all of us.
