confront even more discrimination and harasement than men. Officially, discrimination based on caste has already been banned in India. But an- other delegate from Tamil Nadu, Joseph Raj, notes that changing the laws has not changed the system.

"In the documents, Constitution and the law, they prohibited discrimination," he says. "But in practice it is there. We have mechanisms within our country, but it has failed to protect our rights."

Mr. Raj is pleased with the amount of pop- ular support he and his colleagues are get- ting in Durban. He points to the large num- ber of non-Indians roaming the conference grounds wearing headbands, jackets and but- tons supporting their cause. He and other campaigners want the Indian Government to address the issue at the U.N.- sponsored conference, which began Friday. And they want India to put an end to caste discrimination for good.

U.N. Secretary-General Kofi Annan briefly touched on the matter during the meeting of non-governmental organizations. He said the delegates at the U.N. conference will need to address discrimination based on caste but he failed to use that word to describe it. He sim- ply referred to discrimination based on ori- gin or work, which is commonly seen as a eu- phemism for caste.

An activist pressed him further on the matter, but Mr. Annan did not respond. That prompted an angry outcry from some mem- bers of the audience.

Getting public support for the Dalits' cause in India may not translate into a so- lution for caste discrimination. But it seems clear that the activists have accomplished at least one of their goals. They have put the issue in the public eye on a global scale.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE
RAYMOND V. MARIANO

HON. JAMES P. MCGOVERN
OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 13, 2001

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Honorable Raymond V. Mariano, Mayor of the City of Worcester, Mas- sachusetts. Mayor Mariano has been selected to receive an award from the Grafton Demo- cratic Town Committee.

Mayor Mariano has a long distinguished record of public service. He served on the Worcester School Committee from 1977 until 1981 when he was elected to the Worcester City Council. In 1993, he was first elected to serve as the Mayor of the City of Worcester. He was re-elected in 1995 and 1997 by the largest percentage of any Mayor in Worce- ster's history, and is now serving his fourth term in office after successfully winning re- election in 1999.

During his tenure as the Mayor of the City of Worcester, Mayor Mariano has had many accomplishments. In order to recognize and respond to the challenges facing the city's young people, Mayor Mariano created a city- wide youth group to work directly with the mayor's office. The mayor also initiated a summer youth program that has created over 2,000 jobs for the city's youth. Mayor Mariano has also recognized the need for development in the City of Worcester. He helped to secure federal grants for the renovation of Union Sta- tion and was the driving force behind the building of a new convention center that is open today. Perhaps Mayor Mariano's greatest success has been the ability to connect with the city's residents. Mayor Mariano has made himself available to hear the citizens' concerns through the community meetings and the 'Mayor's Walks' through the neighbor- hoods.

Mayor Mariano has been active in many po- litical campaigns on the local, state, and re- gional levels. He has demonstrated his belief in and the dedication to our political system by working tirelessly on Presidential, U.S. Senate, Gubernatorial and Congressional campaigns and referenda.

I would like to commend the Mayor, who makes his home with his wife Antonia and their three children, Gina Marie, Raymond Jr., and Anthony on his achievements and con- gratulate him for this well-deserved award. I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to The Honorable Raymond V. Mariano for his outstanding record of public service.

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE RHONDA
RASMUSSEN

HON. JOE BACA
OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 13, 2001

Mr. BACA. Mr. Speaker, it is with regret and deep sadness that I rise to honor Rhonda Sue Rasmussen, former constituent from San Bernardino, who passed away on September 11, 2001, when a hijacked plane collided with a section of the Pentagon where she worked. She was one of the many American heroes who perished that day from an evil terrorist at- tack.

Throughout the years, Rhonda was a true visionary. She loved her family. I believe that the well-being of our peoples de- pends on all of our dedication and efforts to invest in the present and the future. Mr. Speaker, Rhonda served as an auditor for the army. She was one of the many face- less men and women that support our military forces and keep our Nation safe. She was a dedicated worker, one who always makes sure that citizens come first. She was ex- tremely strong, brave and dedicated to her work. She had a sense of fun about her, even though she approached her duties with great seriousness and duty. They say a person is measured by the lives he or she touched. Through the grace of God, Rhonda touched many lives.

Rhonda's family had nothing but praise for her, describing her as a dedicated and great hero that on Tuesday put herself in harm's way. So in giving this honor, we are honoring her this day.

The last time her family saw her was during a barbeque earlier this year. It was at this barbeque, hosted by her mother who suffers from cancer, that she told her family that she could not go to work. The family thought she would recover. Regretfully, that day will never come. A family will never be reunited, and we grieve for the loss of this wonderful soul.

Rhonda served our nation proudly, raised four wonderful and dedicated children, and was loving wife. Although she, her husband, and her children had to move often due to her work, she managed to raise four wonderful children. Three of her children are in college and the fourth is a Forestry Department fire- fighter in Washington state.

May God protect the soul of this wonderful woman. In a time when decent people are in short supply, she was a model and example to her children and her community. Selfless as seen in her commitment to the safety of our nation. Caring as seen in her devotion to her family. Her soul is one of the many departed on that fateful day, but the impact of her death is a deep well of sorrow in itself. I wish to ex- tend to her children, husband, and the rest of her family my most heartfelt condolences. I cannot ever come to comprehend what her loss means to her family, but I am saddened and I mourn with them. Let us take comfort in the fact that she is now guarded by our Lord. Rhonda you are loved by many, you served your nation well, you are a hero, and will not be forgotten.

A devoted wife to Floyd Rusmussen, Rhonda lived in Virginia during her work at the Pentagon. Rhonda has four children: Nathan, T.J., Jeremiah and Becky. Rhonda Rasmussen is a model of excellence we can all follow. Rhonda will be missed by family and friends alike. She touched us all with her kind deeds and leader- ship in her community.

TRIBUTE TO ROBERTA R.
GOLDMAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 13, 2001

Mr. MCGOVERN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Roberta R. Goldman of Shrewsbury, Massachusetts. She has been selected to receive an award from the Grafton Demo- cratic Town Committee on Sunday, Sep- tember 16, 2001 in Grafton, Massachusetts.

Following graduation from Shrewsbury Univer- sity, she moved to Shrewsbury to raise her family and became involved in numerous civic and political activities. She served in the Mas- sachusetts House of Representatives where she helped pass the Education Reform Act of 1985. She also served as Director of Edu- cational Reform in the Office of Education Af- fairs under Governor DuKakis.

As a member of the Democratic State Com- mittee since 1988, Roberta has served on the Rules Committee and on the Host Committee for four Democratic State Conventions held in Worcester. She has been a delegate to five Demo- cratic National Conventions and last year was elected as an Elector to the Electoral College. Her campaign for candidates at every level, from local office holders to Presi- dential candidates is legend. She is Co-Vice Chair of the Shrewsbury Town Democratic Committee, and chairs the bi-annual Eleanor Roosevelt Humanitarian Award event.
