MEASURE PLACED ON
CALENDAR—H.R. 2975

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that H.R. 2975, the House-passed counterterrorism bill just received from the House, be placed on the calendar.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, OCTOBER
16, 2001

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand adjourned until 10 a.m., Tuesday, October 16; that immediately following the prayer and pledge, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed expired, and the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day; that there then be 60 minutes for morning business, with the time equally divided and controlled by the two leaders or their designees, with the first half hour controlled by the Republican leader, and the remaining half hour controlled by the majority leader, and that Senators be allowed to speak for up to 10 minutes each; that at approximately 11 a.m., the Senate resume consideration of the motion to proceed to the foreign operations appropriations bill, and that the Senate recess from 12:30 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. for the party conference luncheons.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. REID. Mr. President, we were unable to invoke cloture on the motion to proceed to the foreign operations appropriations bill. These pieces of legislation, as important as they are to the Senate, are more important to the President. I hope someone will report to the President from the minority why they are holding up these bills that are so important to the administration. We cannot move forward on these bills, and the holdup is we are not moving, they say, quickly enough on the judicial nominations.

I say to the American public, that is not very good reasoning.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. REID. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand adjourned under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:22 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, October 16, 2001, at 10 a.m.
