The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

Mr. LAFALCE. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker.

I will not object because the gentleman from Ohio and myself have worked on this bill in a very collegial fashion, in a bipartisan fashion; and we have attempted to iron out all differences. As of a half hour ago, we did come to accommodation on the remaining differences.

It is my understanding that the suspension calendar tomorrow will have the bill we have agreed upon and that amongst other things it in no way impinges upon any lawsuit that has been brought or that could be brought under existing law. The only impact it would have is to clarify that certain provisions of this bill would not expand the law with respect to RICO in certain areas. With that understanding, we can go forward.

One of the reasons I am willing to go forward, too, on a suspension calendar on such a bill, first of all, is I have long favored a money laundering bill. We advanced it last year in the Committee on Banking and Financial Services. Secondly, the exigencies of our time demand immediate swift action.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.
