

enough. There a disparity in the current law, and this provision aims to correct that disparity.

Many leaders has stepped forward in support of this provision. General Hugh Shelton, former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff stated during his tenure that "in the absence of legislative relief, medical retirement requirements place an undue burden on both commanders in the field and fleet and, more tragically, on families that are denied important and deserving benefits."

I urge my colleagues to support the motion to instruct the conferees to accept the Senate provision and provide survivor benefits to family members of those who die while on active duty.

Mr. STUMP. Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, I have no further speakers, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to instruct.

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to instruct offered by the gentleman from Missouri (Mr. SKELTON).

The motion to instruct was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the Chair appoints the following conferees; and, without objection, the list will be printed at this point in the RECORD.
