ANNOUNCING THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE EDWARD P. BOLAND

(Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I have the sad responsibility this evening of reporting to this Chamber that a very distinguished former Member of this institution, Edward P. Boland, died on Sunday evening.

Ed Boland served in this House for 36 years with distinction as a member of the Committee on Appropriations and as a chairman of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. He served in an institution that he revered. He represented the people of western and central Massachusetts with distinction. He was a patriot of the highest order and an individual who loved the notion that politics had meaning in American life.

In addition to that, for all of us that are gathered here tonight, just two quick lessons that have stuck in my mind for a long period of time as one who even served as an intern for him many years ago.

Mr. Speaker, in 36 years, Eddie Boland had one fund-raiser, and he was mad that he had to go to it. In 36 years, Mr. Speaker, Eddie Boland had one press conference when he announced that he was retiring. He would not issue a press release, and when members of the national press over the Boland amendment attempted to secure his favor, he simply said he would report to the hometown paper and to the people back home what he was doing, and that was about the size of it.

This institution mourns his passing. He was a great confidant of Tip O'Neill and of President Kennedy, as well as the Kennedy family, and this institution could not have had an individual who carried its reputation in better form.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. MARKEY), the dean of the Massachusetts delegation.

Mr. MARKEY. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Springfield, Mr. Boland's successor in Congress.

Eddie was elected as a State Representative in 1932 when Franklin Delano Roosevelt was elected President, and left in 1988 as George Bush was about to be elected President. He carried the same values throughout all of those years, and he came to be known, for all of those who are still here who served with him, as a legislative giant.

He lived with Tip O'Neill for 24 years as roommates in an apartment here in Washington, for the first 24 years of his career, before Tip brought Millie down when he was elected Speaker; and they said for those 24 years, the only thing that was ever in the refrigerator were cigars and orange juice.

In a lot of ways, with his passing, for Massachusetts politics, passes an era as well, that Tip O'Neill and John McCormick and Eddie Boland span the years in representing.

Mr. NEAL of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, 50 years without having lost an election, a terrific wife in Mary and four wonderful children, this institution tonight mourns his passing.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMMONS). Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 3, 2001, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

FAST TRACK IS THE WRONG ISSUE AT THE WRONG TIME FOR AMERICA

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. BONIOR) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I want to, first of all, commend my colleague, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BROWN) for arranging a discussion this evening of the fast track issue that is pending now before this body.

For several months now, lawmakers and corporate executives have been pushing to grant President Bush fast track authority, which is basically the authority to negotiate trade deals and not have the Congress to any extent really participate in the decision-making process, taking away Article I, Section 8 of our constitutional responsibilities. This push has not been slowed by the attacks of September 11, and what we have seen is unemployment soaring, layoffs are multiplying, workers are hurting, and still, week in and week out, we hear that fast track is coming to the floor.

Well, Mr. Speaker, right now this Nation needs to remain unified. We need to act with a common purpose. Fast track will only divide us. It is one of the most divisive issues that this Congress faces on a regular basis. It is a controversial issue at a time when we least can afford to be controversial.

I have heard the arguments that fast track will stimulate our economy. Nothing, nothing could be further from the truth. The fast track bill at issue now is designed to speed complex trade agreements through Congress without a real debate in our country or a real debate and scrutiny in this institution. No one in this House could offer an amendment to improve the deal that is negotiated. And, making matters worse, this fast track bill includes no guarantees or provisions to ensure that the rights or jobs of American workers are protected.

The reality is that fast track accelerates an already flawed trade policy through Congress. Once these deals are enacted, companies have greater leeway, even incentive, to relocate overseas, taking advantage of weak or non-existent labor and environmental standards. That can only be demonstrated vividly by what we did in NAFTA and what happens when these
