

work. In his vocational career he has served many areas of the church including: director of Catholic Charities, pastor of several parishes, and vicar general of the diocese.

A veteran of World War II, he served as chaplain of the New Hampshire National Guard and was a member of the U.S. Army Reserve. As the son of a naval aviator who was killed in a World War II incident and a Vietnam veteran, I applaud Msgr. Molan's selfless dedication to America.

Msgr. Molan has served the citizens of New Hampshire with care and concern. I commend Msgr. Molan for being recognized for his outstanding service to the church and community and thank him for making a positive difference in the lives of so many of his brothers and sisters in the State. It is truly an honor and a privilege to represent him in the Senate.●
