TRIBUTE TO JAYNE MARCUCCI

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Jayne Marcucci of Hooksett, NH, for being honored the state's first Ronald Reagan "Gipper" Award recipient and Young Republican of the Year 2001. Jayne was awarded the Ronald Reagan award on the former President's birthday.

Jayne has served the citizens of New Hampshire selflessly with enthusiasm and loyalty as the former Executive Director of the New Hampshire State Republican Party. A grassroots builder, Jayne has been successful in attracting many young people to become involved in politics.

A graduate of the University of New Hampshire, Jayne received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and later earned a Master of Business Administration degree, also from the University of New Hampshire.

Jayne served the State of New Hampshire as Deputy Press Secretary for my Senate office in Manchester. She is the President of Marcucci Consulting providing political consulting and public relations services to clients in New Hampshire.

A conscientious and dedicated volunteer, Jayne donates hours of her time to a therapeutic riding program. T.H.E. Farm, located in Tewksbury, MA, provides services to persons with disabilities. Jayne contributes to T.H.E. Farm by promoting the valuable program with communications and public relations assistance.

Jayne has served the citizens of New Hampshire with selfless dedication and hard work. It is an honor to represent her in the United States Senate.●

100 YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF THE JEWISH FEDERATION OF GREATER PHILADELPHIA

● Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I stand before you today to recognize the contributions made by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia. On March 22, 2001 they will celebrate their 100 year anniversary, and I would like to extend my sincere gratitude for the leadership and guidance they continue to provide to the Philadelphia community.

The mission of the Jewish Federation is to assure that the basic human needs of Jewish populations at risk are met, to maximize Jewish identification and participation in Jewish life. In addition, the hard work of the federation provides leadership and effective outreach efforts to those in the Jewish community.

When the federation celebrates their 100th anniversary, they will sign the Centennial Celebration Charter, just as their ancestors did in 1901, which will reaffirm their commitment to the Jewish community. The Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia remains committed to the five counties in Southeastern Pennsylvania, by creating a caring, compassionate, involved Jewish community that encourages members to take an active role in their culture and religion.

I commend the members of the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia as they reach this milestone anniversary. The people of Philadelphia are blessed to have such a caring and involved organization in their community.●

TRIBUTE TO BERNIE STREETER

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to honor Bernie Streeter of Nashua, NH, for his thirty years of distinguished service on the New Hampshire Executive Council.

As executive councilor for District 5, Bernie provided exemplary service to over 225,000 residents in an area which covers the southwestern part of New Hampshire from the Connecticut River Valley to Nashua. Over the years he has worked effectively with seven governors and twenty executive councilors.

As an executive councilor, Bernie worked selflessly on state transportation issues. He chaired the Governor's Commission on Highways and was one of the principal architects of the state's ten year highway plan. He also chaired the New Hampshire Department of Transportation Congestion Mitigation/Air Quality and Transportation Enhancement Committee and presided over all executive council public hearings on judicial nominations.

Bernie, who serves as the 54th Mayor of Nashua, has worked tirelessly in his local community. He serves on the board of directors of the Greater Nashua United Way, the Greater Nashua Chamber of Commerce, The PLUS Company and Marguerite's Place.

On the national level, Bernie was appointed to serve a term on the National Health Planning Council by President Ford. He later was appointed by President Reagan to serve on the National Advisory Council of United States Public Health Service.

Bernie received the 1999 "President's Service Award" from New Hampshire Community Technical College in Nashua, NH, in recognition of his public service and support of post-secondary vocational and technical education.

A graduate of Keene High School and Boston University, Bernie served his country in the United States Army and United States Air Force Reserve. He and his wife, Jan, have lived in Nashua for over thirty-five years and have three children: Shannon Streeter O'Neil, Christopher B. Streeter and Stephanie Streeter McKenna. They have two grandsons, Spencer J. O'Neil and Cameron W. Streeter and a granddaughter, Abigail Streeter.

Throughout his career Bernie has enthusiastically provided dedicated service to his community. He is a role model for us all and it is truly an honor to represent him in the United States Senate.●

TRIBUTE TO REAR ADMIRAL J. CUTLER DAWSON, JR., USN

● Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize an outstanding Naval Officer, Rear Admiral J. Cutler Dawson, Jr. as he completes more than two years of distinguished service as the Navy's Chief of Legislative Affairs for the Congress of the United States. It is a privilege for me to honor his many outstanding achievements and commend him for his devotion to the Navy and our great Nation.

Admiral Dawson is a 1970 graduate of the United States Naval Academy and is one of the Navy's ablest Surface Warfare Officers. As Chief of Legislative Affairs, utilizing professional skills and decisive actions, he "navigated" the Navy through many Congressional actions. Foremost were the issues for pay, force structure funding, leadership confirmations and quality of life initiatives. Further, he ensured support for a difficult series of high profile issues, including the F/A-18 E/F, CVN-77/CVNX, DD-21 Acquisition Strategy, Virginia Class Submarines, Shipyard maintenance, and the Navy/Marine Corps Intranet (NMCI). That's a very commendable record of achievement.

Admiral Dawson provided outstanding advice and recommendations to the Secretary of the Navy and Chief of Naval Operations that have significantly and positively affected the future size, readiness, and capabilities of the Navy. Working closely with the United States Congress, he has helped maintain the best-trained, best-equipped, and best-prepared Navy in the world.

I am proud to thank him for his service as the Chief of Legislative Affairs and look forward with pride and deepest respect as we continue to work with him once he is confirmed in his new assignment as Commander of the U.S. Fifth Fleet.●
