IN MEMORY OF GINA PENNESTRI

● Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, it is with a combination of great sadness and great joy that I ask the Senate to pause briefly so that I may share a little of the remarkable life of my dear friend and confidante Gina Pennestri.

I first met Gina when she was working for my hero and former boss, Congressman John Burton. When John announced his decision to leave the House in 1982, I decided to run for his seat. I can say without hesitation that without Gina I never would have won my first election to Congress. In fact, it is almost certain that without Gina I would not be here today as a U.S. Senator. After that first election she came to work for me and headed my district office until her retirement in 1989. For these and all her other gifts, I will be forever in her debt.

Gina was born on September 30, 1923 in Washington, DC. In retrospect, this makes perfect sense. She always seemed to have been born into politics. She attended George Washington University and became active locally advocating for voting rights for District residents. She began her long career in public service during World War II conducting employee relations for civilian employees stationed overseas. After the War she assisted with the Berlin Airlift working to assure that medical, food and other supplies got to those who needed them.

Gina moved to San Francisco in 1951, where she began at once to raise a family and more than one ruckus. From her first days in the City until her very last, Gina was known for her community spirit and activism. Over the years she worked to protect open space, to achieve civil rights, to end the war in Vietnam and so much more. Gina could be tough. She believed deeply in the inherent worth of all people, and worked especially hard to protect those less fortunate. She was that all-too-rare person whose depth of compassion was matched by an astute political mind. When it came to fighting for what was right, she let nothing and no one stand in the way. Her example inspires me to this day.

A thorn in the side to a few, she was deeply beloved by countless more. And to those who knew her best she was more than just an ally or friend, she was a member of the family. When Gina let you into her life you were there for keeps. Her loyalty was legendary, and her wisdom helped me navigate many difficulties, both in my professional and private life. My family and I will miss her tremendously. Our thoughts and prayers are with her son Marc, his wife Nancy and their children Laura and Daniel, to all of whom Gina was deeply devoted.

So today, I stand before you full of tremendous sorrow over the loss of a true friend and partner. But through the process of remembering Gina and her time among us, I am also filled with tremendous joy—joy that I was so fortunate to have met her and shared in her generous gifts and spirit. It comforts me to know that although she is gone, these will most assuredly live on in the many lives she touched.●
