CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—HOUSE

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Chairman, may I inquire, did the gentleman from California (Mr. STARK) yield back all of his time?

Mr. STARK. Mr. Chairman, I reserved the balance of my time.

Mr. SAXTON. Mr. Chairman, may I inquire, is it my understanding that we are to have votes at this time or shortly, and a request has been made at this time to go ahead and take those votes. My intention at this time would be to yield back my time; however, if the gentleman from California (Mr. STARK) has more speakers and wants to wait until after the votes, which I understand will end about 7 p.m., then perhaps we can continue the debate during the Humphrey-Hawkins part of the debate after 7 p.m.

Mr. STARK. Mr. Chairman, it is my understanding that the Chair intends to call a vote at this point, and after the vote, we would continue using the time of the Joint Economic Committee on the minority to the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. SPRATT), the ranking member of the Committee on the Budget, if that is agreeable with the gentleman’s side.

Mr. Chairman, I believe it would be expedient on my part at this point to yield the balance of the Joint Economic Committee’s time to the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. NUSSELE), Chairman of the Committee on the Budget, which I do.

The CHAIRMAN pro tempore. Does the Chair understand that the request is made on both sides, asking unanimous consent to yield back the balances of their times to the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Budget, respectively?

Mr. STARK. Mr. Chairman, at the time of the gentleman from California (Mr. STARK), it is my intention to agree to the resolution, House Resolution 84, as amended, and to have votes at this time or shortly.

The Speaker pro tempore, pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the Speaker will now put the question on the approval of the Journal, on agreeing to House Resolution 84, and then on each motion to suspend the rules on which further proceedings were postponed earlier today in the order in which the motion was entertained.

The Speaker pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the pending business is the question of the Speaker’s approval of the Journal of the last day’s proceedings.

The Speaker pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 1, rule 1, the Journal stands approved.

PROVIDING FOR EXPENSES OF CERTAIN COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN THE ONE HUNDRED SEVENTH CONGRESS

The Speaker pro tempore. The pending business is the question of agreeing to the resolution, House Resolution 84, as amended, on which the yeas and nays are ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The Speaker pro tempore. The question is on the resolution, as amended.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 357, nays 61, not voting 14, as follows:
