The die was already cast, however, and the Carter Administration (having already de- clined to name public members) simply let the Assay Commission whither away until, in 1980, it expired with the passage of Public Law 96–209 (March 14, 1980). The irony is that only a short time later, the Mint was once again producing precious metal coinage. As the new millennium is on the verge of com- mencement, a movement initiated by former commissioners (most of whom are members of the Old Time Assay Commissioner’s Soci- ety, OTACS for short), has talked about pro- posing revitalization of this old commission. There are reasons why it could succeed, and some reasons why it should. There are a number of reasons why the Assay Commission ought to be reconstituted, and any proposal to do so will require a legislative initiative in Con- gress. Toward that goal, I was asked by an ad hoc advocacy group to try my hand at it. If you’ve got an interest in the Assay Commis- sion, perhaps you’d care to send a note to your Congressman or Senator (U.S. Capitol, Washington, D.C. zip for the House 20515. Senate 20504) with a copy of this article, and the draft legislation. You can encourage them to do the rest.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

HON. SANDER M. LEVIN
OF MICHIGAN
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, March 28, 2001

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Kathleen Romig of Royal Oak, Michigan who has been selected as one of the 12 George J. Mitchell Scholars for 2001. Kathleen was identi- fied in a nationwide competition organized by the United States-Ireland Alliance, a non-par- tisan, non-profit organization based in Wash- ington, DC. The scholarship is named in honor of Sen- ator Mitchell’s contribution to the Northern Ireland peace process. Scholarships are award- ed to individuals between the ages of 18 and 30 who have demonstrated intellectual distinc- tion, leadership potential and commitment to community service. I first met Kathleen in 1996 in my congress- ional office where she was introduced to pub- lic service and social action. She was one of our youngest interns, an eager learner, a fine writer, and a compassionate young woman. Kathleen is a Michigan State University sen- ior and the University’s first recipient of the George J. Mitchell Scholarship. During the one-year program, she will pursue a master’s degree in social policy at the University Col- lege in Cork. She will have formal courses of study, seminar and independent research in her thesis area of social policy.

In her application essay, Kathleen wrote, "There are alternative ways of viewing the problems of juvenile justice and alternative methods of solving it. Some of the most con- cerning are being discussed and tested in Ire- land and Northern Ireland right now. One such alternative is restorative justice, a fas- cinating approach that seeks to balance the needs of offenders, victims and communities."

After graduation, Kathleen hopes to work in Washington, DC, and continue her interest in juvenile justice dealing with the plight of dis- advantaged children.

Kathleen is also the recipient of the 2000– 2001 Jeffrey Cole Excellence Award, the Wal- ter and Pauline Adams Scholarship, the Gor- don and Norma Gruyer Public Policy Intern- ship, and the Royal Oak Rotary Club and Oakland County MSU Alumni Association Scholarships. She is a member of the MSU Honors College, Phi Beta Kappa and a Na- tional Merit Scholar.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Kathleen Romig, a excep- tional young woman who has a passion for learning and a commitment to social justice. I wish her good health, happiness, and success as she embarks on new challenges as a George J. Mitchell Scholar.

HON. BILL LUTHER
OF MINNESOTA
Wednesday, March 28, 2001

Mr. LUTHER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take the opportunity today to recognize Austin “Buster” Working and his wife Delores for their hard work and dedication on behalf of Minnesota’s veterans. Buster and Delores were recently chosen to lead Pop Tent 11, the Honor Degree of the VFW and its Auxiliary. Their long years of proudly serving Minnesota’s veterans make them uniquely qualified to hold the important positions of Commander and President. They have continuously served our veterans with dedication and commitment. For example, dur- ing the past 20 years, Buster has organized over 18,000 hospital visits to Minnesota vet- erans. Delores has baked and delivered over 31,000 cookies to Minnesota Veterans homes. These tireless efforts, paired with enthusiastic selfless service and a willingness to invest personal time and energy, serve as an out- standing example of the spirit of volunteerism that we should foster today.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud of my constituents. Buster and Delores are serving those who served our country. I can think of no better way to show our gratitude to those who risked their lives for our freedom. I thank them for their service.

THE BIKE COMMUTER BILL

HON. BILL LUTHER
OF MINNESOTA
Wednesday, March 28, 2001

Mr. LUTHER. Mr. Speaker, today, Congressman Mark Foley and I are intro- ducing legislation to extend commuter benefits to bicyclists. This important legislation includes bicycles in the definition of transportation cov- ered by the qualified transportation fringe ben- efit. Currently, employers may offer a Transpor- tation Fringe Benefit to their employees for commuting to work. Employees who take advan- tage of this benefit may receive a tax ex- emption benefit totaling $175 for participating in qualified parking plans or $65 for transit or car-pool expenses. Employees may also opt to take cash compensation instead, which is subject to employment taxes. The Bike Com- muter Bill would extend these same Transpor- tation Fringe Benefits to employees who choose to commute by bicycle. It’s time to level the playing field for bicycle commuters.
