PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR
Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the privilege of the floor be granted to Richard Greenough, a detaillee from the Department of Justice working with the staff of the Budget Committee during consideration of this resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Jenny Winkler and Cheri Reidy be granted the privilege of the floor, as well as Jim Horney and Sue Nelson from the other side.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 2001
Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until the hour of 9 a.m. on Tuesday, April 3. I further ask unanimous consent that on Tuesday, immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate resume consideration of the Senate; and the Clinton-Gore proposal, one of the key alternatives in the legislative process. It sets the stage for the upcoming debate on the budget resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM
Mr. DOMENICI. For the information of all Senators, the Senate will resume the budget resolution tomorrow morning. Amendments will be offered during tomorrow's session. Therefore, votes are expected throughout the day and into the evening. Senators are reminded of the time constraints on debate under the Budget Act and encouraged to work with the managers if they intend to offer amendments.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE
Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

Mr. CONRAD. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, I would like to speak for 2½ minutes.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I want to say that we should do two things: We should make a maximum effort on, what would be the public policy of providing Social Security benefits. It shows that we are going to have surplus money now, even if we save all Social Security trust fund money, the deficit in the Social Security trust fund money. The deficit for a country is going to mushroom when the Social Security trust fund money is reserved, and we have to account for that.

What I am saying is, we should do two things: We should make a maximum effort on putting down our publicly held debt, and the Senator said the President is paying down the publicly held debt, but he has not talked about the gross Federal debt. The gross Federal debt, during this period, is actually going to go from $5.6 trillion today to nearly $7 trillion at the end of this period.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution now to deal with this long-term debt crisis; in addition to aggressively paying down our publicly held debt, doing it more aggressively than they propose, I am also proposing dealing with our long-term debt, something for which they have not reserved a dime.

That is the reason for that part of the plan, and we will be happy to discuss this more tomorrow and say we look forward to additional debate.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I have just been informed the pages would like us to spend a few more minutes. Somebody is blushing, but that is the truth. Something very nice happens to them in 5 minutes that will happen to them if we close up now.

Mr. CONRAD. Let's not give up then.

Mr. DOMENICI. I want to speak for 2½ minutes of it and the Senator from North Dakota can speak for 2½ minutes of it, or we can have a quorum call. People have heard enough of us. First, those listening, stay tuned tomorrow and we will tell you how President Clinton figured out that he could say he was saving Social Security but then had a long time to pay for it. I just think. You remember, he had a 15-year budget once. Tomorrow, we will tell you what he was up to when he did that.

That is most interesting. He can spend more and still claim Social Security is being taken care of because he did it in 15-year intervals instead of 10.

That is all I am going to say. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9 A.M. TOMORROW
Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 9 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, April 3, 2001, at 9 a.m.
