short, supervised visit. There is absolutely no reason why we should not have that allowed at the very least telephone access to our military personnel. China is not a technologically backward country without phone service; our people are not being held in some isolated mountain village in the middle of a jungle. China’s behavior in this case in purposefully keeping us from contacting the aircrew is, to me, disturbing.

In addition, I also am concerned that in contravention of international norms, Chinese officials have boarded the aircraft and have apparently removed portions of the equipment from it. International law recognizes both the right of the crew of an aircraft in distress to land safely on foreign soil and the inviolable sovereignty of an aircraft in distress on foreign soil; it also recognizes the right of a nation which has had an aircraft land in distress on foreign soil to have its citizens and aircraft returned safely and without undue delay. China’s behavior in this case disturbs me not just because of the ramifications in this particular case, but also because it has the capability of wrecking greater havoc on the overall bilateral US-PRC relationship, a relationship I believe to be our most important in Asia along with Japan and South Korea. The Chinese government needs to realize that this issue is bigger than just this crew and this plane. This is about trust, about whether the PRC can be trusted to live up to its word, to live up to international agreements which it has signed, and to be a part of the world community of nations. So far, they have turned their backs on those agreements, and on their obligations. They have set aside the Members of Congress, that whether they can be trusted is presently open to question.

If this matter is not resolved immediately and satisfactorily, then the Congress needs to rethink whether Beijing can be trusted to fulfill its obligations as a member of the WTO. And while I have previously stated that I believe it would be a mistake to include such materiel as Aegis-equipped destroyers in this year’s weapons sales to Taiwan, if Beijing remains intransigent and continues to violate norms of decent international behavior in this case, then I—for one—will begin to re-assess whether Taiwan is not justified in its mistrust of the PRC and whether such sales might not now be justified. It would truly be a shame if, at the beginning of a new Administration, an Administration that has not even had a beginning of a new Administration, an administration that has not even had a beginning of a new Administration, an Administration that has not even had a beginning of a new Administration, an Administration that has not even had a beginning of a new Administration, an

It would truly be a shame if, at the be-chance yet to formulate or articulate its China policy, this situation remains.

The resolution is simple. It expresses our regret over the damage to the aircraft and the loss of life resulting from the collision. It calls on the Chinese government to release the crew, who are, of course, utmost in our thoughts and concern; the aircraft, and the equipment from the aircraft. Finally, it supports President Bush in his efforts. I am pleased that the resolution has a bipartisan list of seventy-five co-sponsors, including the ranking member of the East Asia Subcommittee [Mr. Kang] and very distinguished President pro tempore [Mr. THUR- Mond]; the distinguished chairman of the Armed Services Committee [Mr. WARNER]; the Chairman of the Energy Committee [Mr. MURkowski]; three members and the ranking minority member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee; the distinguished Senator from Indiana [Mr. LUGAR], Mr. SMITH of Oregon and Mr. BROWNBACK, and Senator BIDEN; two Senators who I consider among the most knowledgeable of China in the Senate, Senator FEINSTEIN and Senator BAucus; and one of our newest members, Senator CLINTON.

I hope that we will act to put the Senate on record on this issue.

SENATE RESOLUTION 67—COM-
MENDING THE BLUE DEVILS OF DUKE UNIVERSITY FOR WINNING THE 2001 NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEN’S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Mr. HELMS (for himself and Mr. ED- WARDS) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to:

S. RES. 67

Whereas the 2000–2001 Duke University Blue Devils’ men’s basketball team (referred to in this resolution as the “Blue Devil- ies”) had a spectacular season; Whereas the Duke Blue Devils finished the regular season with a 26–4 record, claiming a record 5 straight finishes in first place during the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season; Whereas the Duke Blue Devils won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament Championship, winning the championship of that tournament for the third year in a row; Whereas the Duke Blue Devils are the first men’s basketball team to be a number one seed in the National Collegiate Athletic Association’s Men’s Basketball Tournament during 4 consecutive seasons since that association began seeding teams in 1979; Whereas the Duke Blue Devils amassed the most wins, 133, in a 4-year period of any Na- tional Collegiate Athletic Association men’s basketball team in history; Whereas Shane Battier received the 2001 Naismith Award as men’s college basketball Player of the Year; Whereas Coach Mike Krzyzewski has taken the Duke Blue Devils to 7 national cham-2001 National Collegiate Athletic Association Men’s Basketball Championship. Now, there- fore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate commends the Blue Devils of Duke University for winning the 2001 National Collegiate Athletic Association Men’s Basketball Championship.
