AMENDMENT No. 1. Page 124, after line 12, add the following:

SEC. 747. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO THE REMOVAL OF THE UNITED STATES FROM THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) The United Nations Commission on Human Rights, located in Geneva, Switzerland, provides a forum for discussing human rights and expressing international support for improving human rights performance.

(2) The United States is a founding member of the United Nations and a permanent member of the Security Council of the United Nations.

(3) The United States has been a member of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights since it was established in 1947 and has used membership on the Commission to internationally condemn countless acts of inhumanity and human rights violations.

(4) The United States vigorously opposes human rights violations, such as those perpetrated by the People's Republic of China, Cuba, and Sudan, which have violently repressed religious, spiritual, cultural, and political movements and continue to ban, criminalize, and harass groups they label as cults or heretical organizations and detain, incarcerate, and generally violate the human rights of individuals they accuse of being participants in those organizations.

(5) Nations on the United Nations Commission on Human Rights that violate the human rights of their own citizens are in a position to remove from the Commission nations that are vigilant for violations of human rights and vocal in their opposition to such violations.

(6) The United States has an essential voice in the global community on issues pertaining to the protection of individual freedoms and human rights, and the United Nations Commission on Human Rights provides a platform from which the United States may advance these issues in the international community.

(7) The other members of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights voted on May 3, 2001, to not re-elect the United States to the Commission.

(b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—Congress—

(1) protests the removal of the United States from the United Nations Commission on Human Rights, on which the United States has an international obligation to participate;

(2) urges the United Nations to redesign the format of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights to include each of the 5 permanent members of the Security Council of the United Nations;

(3) denounces human rights violations perpetrated by other current members of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights, including the People's Republic of China, Cuba, and Sudan; and

(4) strongly supports any efforts by the United States Government to rejoin the United Nations Commission on Human Rights and to continue to decry and work to end human rights violations in nations around the world.
