

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES—Thursday, May 10, 2001

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Reverend Ira Combs, Jr., The Greater Bible Way Temple, Jackson, Michigan, offered the following prayer:

Of course let us remember, blessed are the brief, for they shall be heard again.

With bowed heads at this time, we want to, before giving the prayer, give honor to Congressman NICK SMITH, the Honorable President George W. Bush, the Speaker of the House, and all the distinguished Members of this body.

Again with bowed heads, Almighty and Eternal God, our provider and continual sustenance, we Your public servants disrobe ourselves of our personal pride and bow our heads in humility.

We ask for forgiveness for our individual and collective shortcomings as a people. We petition Your divine assistance, requesting that You script our prayers to reflect a deep and abiding appreciation for the rich historicity our Founding Fathers have left us in the creative inspiration of our Nation's Constitution and Bill of Rights.

Inspire us as Republicans, Democrats, Independents and others to never forget the virtues upon which this Nation's democracy was founded, the precepts that are the cause of our current prosperity, and, finally, bless us with reverence for You as a loving and abiding and caring Creator.

Help us seek peaceful and cooperative communion with You, our fellow man, our colleagues, and in each of our communities of faith, never forgetting and ever remembering that it is faith in You that has brought us, blessed us and kept us.

In Your mighty name we pray, and all the people said, Amen.
