family-owned store into a heap of broken bricks, twisted metal, and shattered glass; whereas these nineteen men killed while serving their country were Captain Christopher Adams, Sergeant Daniel Cafourek, Sergeant Kevin Johnson, Sergeant Ronald Cartrette, Jr., Sergeant Patrick Fennig, Captain Christopher Lester, Airman First Class Brent Marthaler, Airman First Class Thanh Nguyen, Airman First Class Joshua Woody; whereas those guilty of this attack have yet to be brought to justice; whereas the families of these brave servicemen still mourn their loss and await the day when those guilty of this act are brought to justice; and whereas terrorism remains a constant and ever-present threat around the world: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the Congress, on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of the terrorist bombing of the Khobar Towers in Saudi Arabia, recognizes the sacrifice of the 19 servicemen who died in that attack, and calls upon every American to pause and pay tribute to these brave soldiers and to remember every violent act that may serve as a warning of a terrorist attack.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 56—EXpressing the sense of Congress that a commemorative postage stamp should be issued by the United States Postal Service honoring the members of the armed forces who have been awarded the purple heart

Ms. SNOwE submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Governmental Affairs:

Sense of Congress that a postage stamp commemorating the members of the armed forces who have been awarded the purple heart is a fitting tribute both to those members and to the memory of George Washington: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that a postage stamp commemorating the members of the armed forces who have been awarded the purple heart is a fitting tribute both to those members and to the memory of George Washington; whereas those guilty of this attack have yet to be brought to justice; whereas the families of these brave servicemen still mourn their loss and await the day when those guilty of this act are brought to justice; and whereas terrorism remains a constant and ever-present threat around the world: Now, therefore, be it
