Mr. HASTINGS of Washington, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 107–118) on the resolution (H. Res. 183) providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 2330) making appropriations for Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2002.

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that, during further consideration of H.R. 2311 in the Committee of the Whole pursuant to unanimous consent that, during further consideration of H.R. 2311 in the Committee of the Whole pursuant to the resolution (H. Res. 183), the following amendments be debatable for 20 minutes: Mr. TRAFICANT of Ohio, regarding bio/environmental research; Mrs. BERKLEY of Nevada, regarding nuclear waste; Mr. DAVIS of Florida, regarding the general investigations dealing with $9.9 million, that would be a 15-minute vote; the second amendment would then be a 5-minute vote in sequence; the Hinchey amendment would be a 5-minute vote; the Kucinich amendment would be a 5-minute vote; and then there would be a 5-minute vote on the Bonior amendment? Those all would be taken together? There would be no break in time after the Kucinich amendment and the Bonior amendment?

Mr. CALLAHAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. VISCOSKY. I yield to the gentleman from Alabama.

Mr. CALLAHAN. The gentleman from Indiana is correct.

Mr. VISCOSKY. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection. The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Alabama?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on International Relations and ordered to be printed: To the Congress of the United States:

Pursuant to section 204(b) of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. 1703(b) (IEEPA), and section 301 of the National Emergencies Act, 50 U.S.C. 1621, I hereby report that I have exercised my statutory authority to declare a national emergency in response to the unusual and extraordinary threat posed to the national security and foreign policy of the United States by (i) actions of persons engaged in, or assisting, sponsoring, or supporting acts obstructing implementation of the Dayton Accords in Bosnia or United Nations Security Council Resolution 1244 of June 10, 1999, in Kosovo. The actions of those individuals and groups threaten the peace in or diminish the security and stability of the Western Balkans, undermine the authority, efforts, and objectives of the United Nations, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), and other international organizations and entities present in those areas and the wider region, and endanger the safety of persons participating in or providing support to the activities of those organizations and entities, including United States military forces and Government officials. In order to deal with this threat, I have issued an Executive order blocking the property and interests in property of those persons determined to have undertaken the actions described above. The Executive order prohibits United States persons from transferring, paying, exporting, withdrawing, or otherwise dealing in the property or interests in property of persons identified in the Annex to the order or persons designated pursuant to the order by the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State. Included among the activities prohibited by the order are dealing in or receiving by United States persons of any contribution or provision of funds, goods, or services to or for the benefit of any person designated in or
