hope to millions of people throughout the former Yugoslavia.

Above all, as Senator MCCONNELL has already pointed out, we should congratulate Prime Minister Djindjic for surrendering Milosevic should be aware that for the United States there is no alternative. We will not support a Serb Government that does not cooperate with the War Crimes Tribunal. We expect the apprehension and transfer to The Hague of the other publicly indicted war criminals who remain at large in Serb territory, and the release of the other victims, dead and alive, in Kosovo, and on behalf of Milosevic's other victims. We submit this resolution on their behalf, former Yugoslavia in their names. We condemn Milosevic's disastrous policies, and who are fleeing from danger and persecution; and asylum seekers. Our country owes it an enormous debt of gratitude, and I urge the Senate to agree to this well-deserved tribute.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 58—EXPRESSING SUPPORT FOR THE TENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ASIA PACIFIC PARLIAMENTARY FORUM

Mr. AKAKA (for himself and Mr. INOUYE) submitted the following concurrent resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations:

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives Concurring), that the forum will hold its tenth annual meeting on January 6 through 9, 2002, which will be the framing of the forum hosted by the United States; whereas approximately 270 parliamentarians from 27 countries in the Asia Pacific region will attend this meeting; whereas the East-West Center is an internationally recognized education and research organization established by the United States Congress in 1960 largely through the efforts of the Eisenhower administration and the Congress; whereas it is the mission of the East-West Center to strengthen understanding and relations between the United States and the peoples of the Asia Pacific region and to help promote the establishment of a stable, peaceful and prosperous Asia Pacific community in which the United States is a natural, valued and leading partner; whereas it is the agenda of this meeting to advance democracy, peace, and prosperity in the Asia Pacific region; therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives Concurring), That the Congress—
