his family. Pastor Coleman and his wife Martha were married for 51 years. During this time they served the community and sphere able to raise 10 children. These children: Hurlette Dickens, Hurley Jr., Charles, Ritchie, Ronnie, E. Yvonne Lewis, Myra Williams, Elaine Bonner, Evelyn Yeager and Edna Coleman, are pillars in their community who have followed their parent’s example of service to others.

The vitality and strength of our Nation is due, in a large part, to the dedication and efforts of individuals like the Reverend Hurley J. Coleman Sr. Reverend Coleman and his wife were a dedicated couple whose love for one another and their family touched the entire community that they tirelessly served. I am sure that my Senate colleagues will join me in honoring the Reverend Hurley J. Coleman Sr., and in wishing his family well in the years ahead.

TRIBUTE TO ANGELA PEREZ BARAQUIO

Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Angela Perez Baraquio of Honolulu, HI, on being named as Miss America 2001.

Angela received a BA in education from the University of Hawaii, Manoa, and earned academic awards in college including: University Dean’s List, Golden Key National Honor Society Member, 1998-1999, Donna Mercado Kim Academic Scholarship, Sibyl Nyborg Haide Student Teaching Grant and Evelyn Siu Foo Scholarship in Elementary Education.

Angela is a K-3rd grade physical education teacher and 5th-8th grade coach and director at Holy Family Catholic Academy. She is active in her local community as Choir Director at St. Augustine by the Sea Catholic Church in Waikiki.

Her platform, Character in the Classroom: Teaching Values, Valuing Teachers, recognizes the important contributions that teachers make in our country and encourages the adoption of character development programs in schools throughout the United States. Angela aspires to complete a Master’s degree in Education to accomplish her platform goals.

Angela is visiting New Hampshire for the first time on July 11, 2001. She has been invited by the University of New Hampshire to be a keynote speaker at “New Hampshire Celebrates Team Nutrition Day.” The special event held during the University of New Hampshire’s 2-week institute for school professionals recognizes the efforts of administrators and teachers who develop programs that promote nutritional and fitness instruction for the youth of the state. Now in its fifth year, the institute is the only one of its kind in the United States.

The Miss America Organization is one of the Nation’s leading achievement programs and the world’s largest provider of scholarships for young women. The Miss America Organization provides young women with the opportunity to grow personally and professionally while instilling a spirit of community service through a variety of community-based programs.

As a former schoolteacher, I commend Angela for her selfless dedication to the education of the young people of Hawaii and our country. I wish her well as she continues her education and continues to enrich the lives of the children in Hawaii.

WESTMINSTER CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

Mr. BOND. Mr. President, I rise to recognize Westminster Christian Academy in St. Louis on winning the Region 3 award at the We the People . . . The Citizen and the Constitution national finals held on April 21-23, 2001.

This award is presented to the school in each of five geographic regions with the highest cumulative score during the national finals. The students of Westminster Christian Academy competed against 49 classes throughout the Nation. They demonstrated a remarkable understanding of the fundamental ideas and values of American constitutional Government.

I had the pleasure to meet with this group of outstanding students during their visit in April, and I am pleased to congratulate them and their teacher Mr. Ken Boesch on such a fine accomplishment. I also congratulate Westminster Christian Academy as well, for proving to be a model school that has installed an example that should be followed by the entire nation. Through hard work, dedication, and discipline they have surpassed the medium.
