EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

on all the people of south Asia. We can do this by maintaining the existing sanctions against India, by stopping our aid to India until it stops discriminate rights that are the cornerstone of real democracies, and by supporting self-determination for the peoples of South Asia in the form of a free and fair plebiscite on their political status. By these measures, we can help bring freedom, security, stability, and prosperity to the subcontinent and bring America new allies and new influence in this dangerous region.

SUPPORTING A COMMEMORATIVE STAMP FOR THE HONORABLE CLAYTON POWELL, JR.

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 11, 2001

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to urge my colleagues to support House Concurrent Resolution 182, which recommends a long overdue commemorative stamp for a lawmaker, civil rights advocate and American statesman whose achievements continue to resonate. Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. remains one of the greatest and most effective legislators in the history of the U.S. Congress. When he was first elected to Congress in 1945, he was one of only two African-American members, and became the first of his race to chair the powerful Committee on Education and Labor from 1961 to 1967.

As Chairman, he spearheaded the legislation that authorized the Medicare, Medicaid, Head Start and school lunch programs, increased the minimum wage and established student loan programs. Congressman Powell also pushed through the landmark Civil Rights Act of 1964, finally codifying his famous “Powell Amendment”; a rider that would deny federal dollars to institutions which practice racial discrimination, which he had introduced repeatedly for years.

Congressman Powell was a pioneer among lawmakers whose accomplishments are among the greatest examples of perseverance and triumph in our democratic system.

I respectfully urge my colleagues to join me and cosponsor H. Con. Res. 182 to celebrate a lawmaker whose career成就 was a testament to the influence of an exemplary involvement in community activities. I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to this colorful, legendary educator, and community leader.
