PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2356, BIPARTISAN CAMPAIGN REFORM ACT OF 2001

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Committee on Rules, I call up House Resolution 188 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

H. RES. 188 Resolved, That at any time after the adoption of this resolution the Speaker may, pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule XX, declare the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the purpose of considering the bill (H.R. 2356) to amend the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, to provide bipartisan campaign reform. The first reading of the bill shall be dispensed with. All points of order against consideration of the bill are waived. General debate shall be confined to the bill and shall not exceed one hour equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on House Administration.

After general debate the bill shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. The bill shall be considered as read. No amendment to the bill shall be in order except those printed in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. Each amendment may be offered only in the order printed in the report, may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report, shall be amendable by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. All points of order against the amendments printed in the report are waived. At the conclusion of the consideration of the bill for amendment the Committee shall rise and report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered in by the Speaker. On the vote on amendments thereto, there will be no intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

Sic. 2. After passage of H.R. 2356, it shall be in order for the Committee to report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered in by the Speaker. On the vote on amendments thereto, there will be no intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

Sic. 2. After passage of H.R. 2356, it shall be in order for the Committee to report the bill to the House with such amendments as may have been adopted. The previous question shall be considered as ordered in by the Speaker. On the vote on amendments thereto, there will be no intervening motion except one motion to recommit with or without instructions.
