The Senate met at 9 a.m. and was called to order by the Presiding Officer, the Honorable E. BENJAMIN NELSON, a Senator from the State of Nebraska.

PRAYER
The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, the width and depth and height of Your love is beyond our understanding but never beyond our acceptance. Out of love for us You offer Your faithfulness, guidance, and strength. Then You give us work to do to accomplish Your plans through us.

So bless the Senators and all of us privileged to work for and with them with an acute awareness of our responsibility to You for what we do with the opportunities that You give us.

In response, we consecrate our lives and our work to You; endue them with Your enabling power. We will cooperate with You, seeking Your guidance and obeying You. And we will anticipate Your interventions to help us when we need You to inspire our thinking, strengthen our resolve, and assure success in our efforts for Your glory.

Today we ask Your special blessing for Jeri Thomson as she is sworn in as the new Secretary of the Senate, Jeri Thomson, who has really dedicated her life to the U.S. Senate. I know for me it is a special occasion, as I am sure it is for anyone who knows Jeri. So I look forward to that and to a fruitful debate today.

I ask if there is anything from the minority, they be allowed to speak now.

The Senator from Minnesota is here. I did not see him in the Chamber earlier. He has his 2 hours.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Who yields time?

The Senator from Minnesota.

Mr. WELLSTONE. I thank the Chair. Mr. President, if I could get the attention of the Senator from Alabama—does the Senator from Alabama—does the minority need the floor right now to do some things? If so, I will be pleased to wait; otherwise, I am ready to go.

Mr. SESSIONS. No. I think we are here on bankruptcy and are glad to go forward.

Mr. WELLSTONE. Mr. President, normally I do not do it this way. I try not to rely too much on notes. But I want to try to be as detailed and as thorough as I can because what I am asking the Senate to do today is to step back from the brink and decline to go to conference with the House on the so-called bankruptcy reform.

I am going to be in this Chamber a number of times over the next week, maybe over the next several weeks. There is a lot that I want to say. There is a lot I think I should say as a Senator from Minnesota because I think Congress is about to make—or is heading toward—a very grave mistake.

I will not attempt to say it all today. What I will do, however, is speak, at least in a broad way, about why I feel so strongly in the negative about this bill. I ask unanimous consent that several pages I have of titles of editorials about the bankruptcy bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

EDITORIALS AGAINST THE BANKRUPTCY BILL
