DISCHARGE AND REFERRAL OF S.

45

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions be discharged from further consideration of S. 45, and the bill be referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

APPOINTMENT OF SENATOR BURR TO READ WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, on behalf of the Vice President, pursuant to the order of the Senate of January 24, 1901, appoints the Senator from North Carolina, Mr. BURR, to read Washington's Farewell Address on Friday, February 18, 2005.

COMMENDING THE RESULTS OF THE PALESTINIAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the consideration of S. Res. 27, which was submitted earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 27) commending the results of the January 9, 2005, Palestinian presidential elections.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, as we celebrate the extraordinary elections in Iraq, let us also recognize the historic progress being made by the Palestinian people toward democracy.

On January 9, for the first time in 9 years, Palestinians living in the West Bank, the Gaza Strip, and Jerusalem voted in free and fair elections. They elected former Prime Minister Dr. Mahmoud Abbas, also known as Abu Mazen, to be their President.

For the first time in 30 years, they cast their ballots for new leadership. It was a great moment for the Palestinian people. It was, as President Bush remarked, “a key step toward building a democratic future.”

The election was also a powerful example to all who strive for freedom. It proved that free and fair elections are not only possible in the Middle East, but the hope and right of all people. During his inaugural speech, President Abbas declared that:

The people have voted for the rule of law, order, pluralism, the peaceful transfer of authority, and equality for all.

I commend President Abbas for these important and inspiring words.

This election represents a genuine opportunity for peace. A democratic Palestinian Authority that rejects violence and embraces the rule of law is one of the most important building blocks for a viable, free, and stable Palestinian state.

Israel also deserves praise for its support of the Palestinian election. Israel provided important cooperation with the Palestinian Authority to minimize delays at checkpoints. Israeli security forces were also deployed away from Palestinian population centers.

The U.S. Government stands ready to work with the new Palestinian leadership to build the bridge to that hopeful future. With wise and principled leadership, Palestinians and Israelis can live side by side in peace.

The road ahead will be difficult. Yesterday, Hamas fighters shelled a Jewish settlement in a purported retaliatory strike. I remain hopeful, however, that Palestinian and Israeli leadership will continue to work together to bring the peace. There is a roadmap. There is a will. With the support of the international community, including the Arab world, both sides will find the way.

Mr. BROWNBACK. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to, the preamble be agreed to, and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 27) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 27

Whereas on January 9, 2005, for the first time in 9 years, large numbers of Palestinians living in the West Bank, the Gaza Strip, and Jerusalem voted in elections that were widely described by outside monitors as free and fair;

Whereas the Palestinian people elected former Prime Minister Mahmoud Abbas, also known as Abu Mazen, to the office of President of the Palestinian Authority;

Whereas an estimated 65 percent of eligible Palestinians living in the West Bank, the Gaza Strip, and Jerusalem participated in voting at over 1000 polling stations, and for the first time in nearly 30 years, the Palestinian people elected new leadership;
