

to allow Indian tribes' participation in the SCGP with funding to establish, expand or improve cemetery on the reservations. The DNVA is planning to establish a new veterans cemetery, to replace the old and full to capacity Ft. Defiance Veterans Cemetery, within the four sacred mountains of the Navajo Nation to afford burial of Native American and non-native veterans, and their eligible spouses and dependent children; and

6. By Resolution CJ-5-40, the Navajo Nation Council resolved that the Navajo People stood ready to aid and defend the United States Government and its institutions against all subversive and armed conflicts and pledged loyalty to the system which recognized minority rights and a way of life. This commitment continues to be exercised in all branches of service and involved at higher rate than any ethnic group population; and

7. It is in the best interest of all Navajo veterans and their spouses and dependent children the need and benefit for final resting place be established within the four sacred mountains of the Navajo Nation.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved That:

1. The Human Services Committee of the Navajo Nation Council hereby recommends the Intergovernmental Relations Committee of the Navajo Nation Council to approve and support the Native American Veterans Cemetery Act of 2003 (H.R. 2983) introduced by U.S. Representative Tom Udall of New Mexico that the bill will make all tribes eligible to apply for State Cemetery Grants from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). This legislation is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

2. The Human Services Committee of the Navajo Nation Council requests the Navajo Nation Washington office to assist by monitoring the progress of the legislation and inform Department of Navajo Veterans Affairs and Human Services Committee for appearances before congressional committees and testimonies.

3. The Human Services Committee of the Navajo Nation Council further recommends that the Office of the President/Vice President of the Navajo Nation and the full Navajo Nation Council support and authorize this effort and initiative on behalf of the Navajo Nation veterans and families.

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly considered by the Human Services Committee of the Navajo Nation Council at a duly called meeting at Window Rock, Navajo Nation (Arizona), at which a quorum was present and that same was passed by a vote of 4 in favor, 0 opposed and 0 abstained, this 14th day of November, 2003.

LARRY ANDERSON,

Chairperson, Human Services Committee.

HONORING 75 YEARS OF HISTORY

HON. RODNEY P. FRELINGHUYSEN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Kinnelon Fire Department, of the Borough of Kinnelon, in Morris County, New Jersey, a vibrant community I am proud to represent. On January 29, 2005, the good citizens of Kinnelon are celebrating the fire department's seventy-fifth anniversary.

For seventy-five years, members of the Kinnelon Fire Department have been protecting and serving the residents of their community. The fire department is made up of ninety volunteers, led by Fire Chief Keith Pavlak. Other dedicated members of the fire department include First Assistant Chief Alan Bresett and Second Assistant Chief Gail Bresett.

The Kinnelon Fire Department has a deep history that is evident in their desire to commemorate the department's 75 year anniversary. Volunteers, along with Mayor Sisco and other council members, will join to celebrate and recognize the volunteers and their predecessors.

From its charter members to its current roster, the membership of the Kinnelon Fire Department, has dedicated itself to the safety and welfare of Kinnelon's good citizens. Kinnelon's firefighters, dedicated public servants, past and present, are to be commended for a job well done.

Mr. Speaker, I urge you and my colleagues to join me in congratulating the members of the Kinnelon Fire Department on the celebration of its seventy-five years protecting one of New Jersey's finest municipalities.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTION HONORING THE JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

HON. BOB GOODLATTE

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. GOODLATTE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce a resolution congratulating the James Madison University football team, the "Dukes", for their outstanding and historic victory in the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division One—Double-A Championship Game.

James Madison University is located in Virginia's 6th congressional district, in Harrisonburg, VA. JMU is one of the nearly twenty colleges or universities in my congressional district. The school was established in 1908 as the State Normal and Industrial School for Women, and remained a women's college until 1966.

The school's name was officially changed to honor our Nation's fourth president, one of eight Virginia presidents, James Madison, in 1977.

JMU is currently home to more than 15,000 students and more than 2,000 faculty members. In addition, the JMU athletic program has more than 500 student athletes who compete in eleven men's and thirteen women's sports.

Mr. Speaker, JMU received an at-large-bid to compete in the I-AA playoffs and defeated Lehigh, Furman, and the College of William and Mary (another wonderful Virginia school) to advance to the championship game.

JMU ultimately defeated the University of Montana Grizzlies with a final score of 31 to 21, before 16,771 fans and a national television audience, at the home field of the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. The Dukes became the first team to win four straight road games in Division I-AA postseason history.

I would like to also congratulate the University of Montana Grizzlies, who were seeking their third national title in ten years. The Grizzlies finished the season with a wonderful record of twelve and three.

I was pleased to participate in a wonderful parade and community celebration a few weeks ago in downtown Harrisonburg to honor the Dukes.

Again, congratulations to James Madison University and I am pleased to have the support of the entire Virginia delegation as I offer this resolution.

CONGRATULATING THE WILKES- BARRE COUNCIL 302 OF THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ON THEIR 107TH ANNIVERSARY AND HONORING RAYMOND J. LENAHAN FOR HIS SERVICE AS GRAND KNIGHT

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to the Wilkes-Barre Council 302 of the Knights of Columbus on their 107th Anniversary and to Raymond John Lenahan for his service as Grand Knight.

The Knights of Columbus are an outstanding example of how a fraternal group that seeks social and financial fellowship for its members is also committed to serving others. Council 302, in particular, deserves particular praise because it has the unique distinction of having organized a complete military unit in World War I. Called the Knights of Columbus Ambulance Company of Wilkes-Barre, PA, these men served in France, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany. The men achieved national recognition for their service to our country.

The Knights of Columbus has always supported charitable work through monetary donations. In 1917, the council raised $5,411 for the War Fund Committee. In 1920, St. Mary's Convent was destroyed by fire and Council 302 presented the Sisters of Mercy with a check for $2,500, raised from voluntary donations.

Another example of the selflessness of the Knights of Columbus is their involvement in blood drives. They began a blood donor campaign with Mercy Hospital in March 1947 and Council 302 is still involved with donations to the local Red Cross.

Throughout the years, the Knights of Columbus have had fine men serve as Grand Knights. Raymond Lenahan has served in that position for the past two years, from 2002 through 2004.

Mr. Lenahan, a native of Hanover Township, is the son of the late Anthony J. and Luella Lenahan. He served as Grand Knight for the Knights of Columbus from 2002 to 2004. Mr. Lenahan resides with his wife Patricia in Forty Fort. The couple has four children and two grandchildren. They are members of St. Aloysius Parish in Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Speaker, it is my privilege to represent an organization as worthy as the Knights of Columbus. Please join me in congratulating them as they celebrate their 107th Anniversary on Saturday.

INTRODUCTION OF FEDERAL LANDS RESTORATION, ENHANCEMENT, PUBLIC EDUCATION, AND INFORMATION RESOURCES ACT

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. UDALL of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, I am today introducing a bill to provide additional resources for use by the Federal land-managing agencies to restore lands damaged as a result of improper activities and to promote public education about the use of the Federal lands. My Colorado colleague, Representative TANCREDO, is cosponsoring the legislation. I greatly appreciate his support.

The bill is based on one part of a bill introduced by Representative TANCREDO that I cosponsored in the 108th Congress. The purpose of that bill was to improve the ability of the land-managing agencies—the Bureau of Land Management, National Park Service, and the Fish and Wildlife Service in the Interior Department as well as the Forest Service in the Agriculture Department—to adequately enforce the rules that apply to uses of the lands they manage.

In the Resources Committee, Mr. TANCREDO and I worked with Chairman POMBO, Ranking Member RAHALL, and other Members, to develop a substitute that included a number of improvements in the bill. The Resources Committee approved that substitute, which included provisions similar to those in the bill I am introducing today. However, after the Resources Committee completed its work, the measure was reviewed by the Judiciary Committee, which made further changes before the bill went to the House floor.

The most significant change was deletion of the provisions of the bill that allowed the agencies to retain fines paid for violations of land-use regulations and to use those funds for repairing damages to the lands and for public education. I regretted that change because in addition to more adequate authority to enforce regulations, the land-managing agencies need more resources—more money and more people—if we want them to do a better job.

The House passed the bill as revised by the Judiciary Committee, but the 108th Congress adjourned before the Senate could complete action on it. Accordingly, Mr. TANCREDO is reintroducing the House-passed bill and I am cosponsoring that measure. My bill is in effect a companion to his legislation.

As approved by the Resources Committee, the Tancredo-Udall bill of the 108th Congress would have helped with that by allowing the agencies to use money from fines to help pay for some of the restoration work caused by violations of regulations and for public education.

The bill I am introducing today is similar. It would allow agencies to use money collected as fines to be used for repairing damage caused by the actions that lead to the fines or by similar actions. It would also allow them to use the money to increase public awareness of regulations and other requirements regarding use of Federal lands. And it provides that any of the money not needed for those purposes would be credited to the Crime Victims Fund in the Treasury.

Mr. Speaker, this is a modest bill but an important one. I think it deserves the support of our colleagues and I will do all I can to achieve its enactment into law.

IN RECOGNITION OF MICHAEL WILLIAM MOORE UPON HIS ACHIEVEMENT OF EAGLE SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

HON. ELLEN O. TAUSCHER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mrs. TAUSCHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to my constituent Michael William Moore of Eagle Scout troop No. 204 in Lafayette, California, as he receives the distinguished honor of the Eagle Scout rank.

The honor of Eagle Scout is given only to those young men who have demonstrated that they have fulfilled its rigorous requirements, including living by the Scout Oath and Law, rising through the Boy Scout ranks, earning 21 merit badges, serving as a leader, and planning and leading a service project for their community. This is not an honor given out lightly: this young man is becoming an Eagle Scout because he is intelligent, dedicated, and principled.

I am proud to call Michael William Moore my constituent, for he is a shining example of the promise of the next generation. Indeed, he represents the best of the young people in our country. I extend my sincere congratulations to him and his family, on this momentous occasion.

AYN RAND'S BIRTHDAY

HON. RON PAUL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. PAUL. Mr. Speaker, today, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Ayn Rand, these comments. Ayn Rand has long inspired advocates of personal liberty and economic freedom. These ideals of individual responsibility and limited constitutional government are urgently needed in our Nation today.

AYN RAND CENTENARY CELEBRATION

(By Don Ernsberger)

February 2nd marks the 100th Anniversary of the birth of philosopher and novelist Ayn Rand. The Russian born author of Atlas Shrugged, Fountainhead and a number of nonfiction works in economics and ethics became, in the twentieth century, a major influence on the intellectual culture of the United States. Her most famous work, Atlas Shrugged remains ranked by the Library of Congress Center for the Book as the second most influential books ever published.

Ayn Rand was a champion of capitalism and of individual liberty. She had experienced the impact of communism in her native Russia and was an outspoken opponent of both communism and of socialism. She advocated personal responsibility and an objective code of moral behavior. Ayn Rand's fictional and non-fictional works promoted the ideal of the self-reliant individual who values reason, production and self-esteem in their personal lives and rejects the enslavement of others to advance one's own personal goals. A proud immigrant, who chose America, she perceptively grasped the nature of our Constitution: "The [U.S.] Constitution is a limitation on the government, not on private individuals . . . it does not prescribe the conduct of private individuals, only the conduct of government . . . it is not a charter for government power, but a charter of the citizen's protection against the government."

Today, February 2, 2005, we celebrate the birth of this influential philosopher and writer who inspired and continues to inspire so many individuals to live rationally, and respect the rights of others. So much of what has made American a great society is found in her writings.

THE CUYAHOGA COUNTY BAR FOUNDATION AND CUYAHOGA COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION'S 59TH ANNUAL PUBLIC SERVANTS MERIT AWARDS

HON. STEPHANIE TUBBS JONES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mrs. JONES of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the Cuyahoga County Bar Foundation and Cuyahoga County Bar Association's 59th annual Public Servants Merit Awards, which will be held on Friday, February 11, 2005, in Cleveland, OH. As a veteran of the Cuyahoga County judiciary, I am honored to congratulate these individuals who have offered decades of faithful service to the bench, bar and public of Cuyahoga County.

Kathleen Ann Beluschak, Cleveland Municipal Court Presiding and Administrative Judge Larry A. Jones' nominee, has spent more than 30 years with the Cleveland Municipal Court, and for almost 3 years, she has been the Court's Administrative Services Office Manager. A graduate of West Tech High School, the longtime Cleveland resident lives with her husband Joe near Hopkins Airport with their two dogs, both of which were rescued and brought into the family by Kathleen. She traces her commitment to public service through a number of generations. In fact, two of her grandparents worked for the municipal and federal governments, her mother and uncles were public employees, as is her husband, sister, and 25-year-old son. At the beginning of her career, she thought the recipients of the awards to be "really old," she has now determined to reconsider that opinion.

Pat Cain has been a Probate Court employee since 1981. Nominated by Presiding Judge John J. Donnelly, Pat has primarily worked as a cashier at the Probate Court. Pat worked at other public agencies before joining the Court. Now a resident in Parma with his wife, Jane Varga, an attorney, Pat's blended
