

THE MILITARY FAMILIES
FINANCIAL SECURITY ACT OF 2005

HON. SUSAN A. DAVIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mrs. DAVIS of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the Military Families Financial Security Act of 2005. This bill will ensure the brave men and women who serve our country will not have to worry about losing critical services their dependent children need.

The men and women who serve in our Armed Forces are everyday heroes. I know about the valor of military families from my own experience as a military wife when my husband was stationed in Japan during the Vietnam War. As a wife and mother in a foreign country with two young children, I observed that many servicemembers were also mothers and fathers and were making the same sacrifices I was. Just as these brave men and women are working to protect our nation, we must likewise protect them and their loved ones through the laws and policies we enact.

In San Diego and around the country, some military families rely on the Supplemental Security Income program (SSI) for means-tested financial assistance. This safety net program is designed to protect qualifying families from poverty and provides access to valuable social services such as Medicaid. Without SSI, some special-needs families would not be able to cover their medical expenses.

Current regulations threaten some military families' eligibility. They face a unique risk of losing benefits due to the way military pay is treated under SSI rules. The Social Security Administration (SSA) considers anything outside basic pay as "unearned income." This method hurts servicemembers and their families since there are more than 30 types of military pay in addition to basic pay. These different pays, considered unearned income, result in higher countable income and affect eligibility. Just a few dollars can make all the difference in the world to these military families.

My legislation would change how the SSA calculates income for SSI eligibility by treating most military compensation as earned income. This simple change will keep families eligible for SSI benefits and simplify the administration of this program.

Last year, in testimony before the Human Resources Subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee, Social Security Commissioner JoAnne Barnhart stated her support for such a proposal, which was part of the President's FY05 budget.

As Commissioner Barnhart stated, "The provision would treat cash military compensation and civilian wages alike, and thus eliminate the present unfair and disadvantageous treatment of cash military compensation other than basic pay under SSI. The proposal would increase SSI benefits for most military families with disabled children, which are currently about 3,000 families. It would be a significant program simplification in these cases and would have a relatively small program cost of only $2 million over 10 years."

She also mentioned how "determining the difference in the types of military pay is time consuming and error prone, and the guidelines for making such determinations covers 14 pages in SSA's operating instructions."

As a proud member of the House Armed Services Committee, I am committed to improving the quality of life of the men and women who serve our country. This legislation is fair, overdue and demonstrates our nation's appreciation. This legislation will give servicemembers peace of mind from knowing that their duties will not jeopardize their families' eligibility for SSI benefits and related services.

I urge you, Mr. Speaker, and all of my colleagues to pass this critical legislation into law.

A TRIBUTE TO BILL PRICE ON THE OCCASION OF HIS 90TH BIRTHDAY

HON. TOM LANTOS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. LANTOS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I invite my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to Mr. Bill Price, a lifelong supporter of the labor movement, a strong advocate for the rights of senior citizens, and a founding member of both the Senior Action Network and the California Alliance for Retired Americans. Mr. Price will be honored for his truly exceptional contributions to his community at his 90th birthday celebration on February 24, 2005.

Since his early years working in the hotel industry in Seattle, Mr. Price has been a dedicated union leader. In 1937, he helped to organize employees who voted to join the Building Service Employees, Local 6. After serving for two years in the U.S. Navy, Mr. Price moved to San Francisco in 1947 to work in his father's grocery store. There, he joined the Retail Clerks Local 648 and was an active member. By the early 1960s, Mr. Price was elected to the Executive Board of Local 648, in which he served first as Vice President, then Organizer, and eventually Business Agent until his retirement.

Mr. Speaker, after retiring, Mr. Price has been busy working to better the quality of life for seniors, families, and working people. A founding member of both the Senior Action Network (SAN) and the California Alliance for Retired Americans (CARA), Mr. Price currently serves as the President of SAN and as Vice President of CARA. Both of these organizations value his leadership, enthusiasm, and persistent efforts on behalf of senior citizens in the Bay Area. True to his selfless nature, Mr. Price asked that his birthday present be celebrated through the continued support of these two organizations that he has worked so hard to create and develop.

In addition to his commitment to the labor movement and the welfare of senior citizens, Mr. Price is also an avid sports fan. A season ticket holder for both the San Francisco 49ers and the Giants, he continues to find time to root for the local teams.

Mr. Speaker, as Mr. Price celebrates his 90th birthday, I urge my colleagues to join me in honoring his outstanding achievements and remarkable dedication to the well-being of his community. I look forward to celebrating many more milestones with Mr. Price in the future.

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. HONDA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to remember and honor the life of K. Patrick Okura. Pat, as he was known to all who were fortunate enough to know him, led a long and accomplished career in the field of mental health and civil rights advocacy. My condolences go out to, Lily, his wife and life long partner who stood at Pat's side for more than 60 years.

Pat's own life spanned more than ninety years and was certainly intertwined with the historic events of those years.

Pat went to UCLA where he earned his a degree in psychology in the early 1930s. At UCLA he also played varsity baseball, which
