Mr. BRADY of Pennsylvania, Ms. SCHAKOWSKY and Messrs. BECERRA, CHANDLER, RUPPERSBERGER and TAYLOR of Mississippi changed their vote from “yea” to “nay.”

So the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated against:

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, on the previous vote which was rollcall no. 42, I inadvertently voted “yes.” I want the record to reflect that I meant to vote “no.”

(Ms. PRYCE of Ohio asked and was given permission to speak out of order for 1 minute.)

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PASSING OF FORMER COLLEAGUE TILLIE FOWLER

Ms. PRYCE of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with great sadness to inform the House that our good friend and our distinguished former colleague from Florida, Tillie Fowler, passed away today at 10:30 a.m. Tillie epitomized the very meaning of class, and she was the Southern lady in this House. She was a rare find, an example to all Members of Congress in her patriotism and her bipartisanship, and to women everywhere in her ability to attain the highest levels of power while always putting her family first. Our prayers are with Tillie's family during this difficult time, and we will all miss her greatly.

Her loved ones should know that Tillie left them, our country, and all who had the good fortune to know her a wonderful and lasting legacy.

And, Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Florida (Mr. CRENSHAW) for a further announcement.

Mr. CRENSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman for yielding. Tillie had an awful lot of friends in this Chamber. And for those of you that will not be able to go to Jacksonville for the funeral service on Friday, next Tuesday night we have reserved a time of Special Order to celebrate her life and her service. And so if you would like to be part of that celebration, if you would please contact my office.

Tillie was a remarkable woman. She was a rare combination of passionate drive and dedication coupled with just a warm and caring feeling for all the people around her, and she will be missed by not only her family, but her friends in this Chamber, by the people of Florida, as well as the people of this Nation whom she so proudly served. So I am sure you all join as we send our thoughts and prayers to her husband Buck, and her two daughters in this difficult time.

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 27) to enhance the workforce investment system of the Nation by strengthening one-stop career centers, providing for more effective governance arrangements, promoting access to a more comprehensive array of employment, training, and related services, establishing a targeted approach to serving youth, and improving performance accountability, and for other purposes, with Mr. TERRY in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill. The CHAIRMAN. Pursuant to the rule, the bill is considered as having been read the first time.

Under the rule, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BOEHNER) and the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. KILDEE) each will control 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BOEHNER).

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Chairman, as we stand here today we continue to see significant progress toward greater economic opportunity and prosperity across the country. More than 2.7 million new jobs have been created over the last 17 months, and the unemployment rate has fallen to 5.2 percent, the lowest level since September 2001. Our economy is strong and it is getting stronger.

The backbone of a strong economy is a well-trained and highly skilled workforce, and it is absolutely critical for workers to have the education and skills necessary to adapt to new opportunities and to move into higher wages.

Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan agreed with this view when he testified before the Committee on Education and the Workforce last year. The chairman said, "We need to increase our efforts to ensure that as many of our citizens as possible have the opportunity to capture the benefits of the changing economy. One critical element in creating that opportunity is the provision of rigorous education and ongoing training to all members of our society."

Chairman Greenspan this morning testified before Congress and talked about the need to do a better job with our education system and better training and retraining of American workers.

The bill before us, the Job Training Improvement Act, would achieve this objective by strengthening the Nation's job training system. In 1998, Congress established a system of one-stop
