

about the financial status of our nation's single employer pension plans. Current law requires this valuable information about pension plans to be kept secret. This is wrong. Employees and investors should know all the facts. Employees should be fully informed about financial health of their own plan, and use that information as part of their overall retirement planning. The President says he supports making the information public. I have introduced legislation making this information public. I hope Congress will act on this proposal when we take up pension legislation later this year.

For now, Congress should be fully aware of the financial health of the nation's top pension plans as it debates ways to strengthen defined benefit pension plans. This resolution will insure we get the data to make informed decisions. Recently, the GAO put the Pension Benefits Guaranty Corporation, PBGC, on its "watch list" for the second time in a row. The PBGC recently reported a $23 billion deficit for last year. Overall, PBGC reports that private pension plans are underfunded by some $450 billion, the largest amount in history. The Bush administration recently proposed hiking pension plan insurance premiums by $15 billion over the next 5 years, and proposes billions of dollars in accelerated pension contributions. And yet, we are being asked to consider such a proposal without current and accurate information about any individual company's funding status. This resolution requests the administration to provide us this information within 14 days, while protecting any proprietary information related to the sponsoring company.

IN HONOR OF DR. DONALD P.
BARICH

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and recognition of Dr. Donald P. Barich, upon the occasion of his retirement after 40 years as a beloved pediatrician within our community. His exceptional expertise and compassionate care of children, from newborn through late teen, has enhanced the well-being of thousands of families throughout our Westside community.

After receiving his Doctor of Medicine from the University of Illinois College of Medicine in 1965, Dr. Barich came to Cleveland Metropolitan Hospital to complete his internship and residency. Beyond his pediatric practice, Dr. Barich was on the frontlines of cutting edge medical research. His respected work has been highlighted by the American Academy of Pediatrics, National and Ohio Chapters; The Cleveland Academy of Medicine; the Case Western Reserve School of Medicine; and the Northern Ohio Pediatric Society. As a Clinical Professor of Pediatrics, Dr. Barich shared his expertise with students at Case Western Reserve University, University Hospitals, Metro Hospital, Southwest General Hospital, Parma Hospital, and Children's Hospital and Medical Center of Akron.

To this day, Dr. Barich continues his vital instruction as Professor of Pediatrics at Case Western University, University Hospitals, Parma Hospital and Southwest General Hospital. The outstanding service and care for every child and every nervous parent has not gone unnoticed. Dr. Barich has been honored on several occasions for his outstanding work as a pediatrician, and was also honored for his service to our country. In 1970, Dr. Barich was awarded the Meritorious Service Award by the United States Air Force at McClellan Air Force Base in California. He has been listed as one of the "Top Docs in Cleveland" for eight years running by Cleveland Magazine.

Mr. Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in honor and recognition of Dr. Donald P. Barich. Dr. Barich's contributions to pediatric medicine throughout our community are immeasurable. Moreover, his pediatric practice is a lasting legacy and reflection of the man himself—compassionate, patient and kind—and his gifted mind and expansive heart served to heal more than broken bones. Dr. Barich's care offered peace and comfort to an anxious child or worried parent, and his work at Pediatric Services, Inc. will be remembered for generations to come.

IN HONOR AND REMEMBRANCE OF
CORPORAL TIMOTHY A. KNIGHT

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of U.S. Marine Corps Corporal Timothy A. Knight, who courageously and selflessly rose to the call to duty and made the ultimate sacrifice on behalf of our country.

Corporal Knight was an exceptional U.S. soldier and was an equally exceptional human being. His life was characterized by his unwavering sense of duty and commitment to our nation, and above all, his life reflected a deep dedication to, and steadfast focus on his family—his beloved wife Gina and beloved daughter, Chloe.

A native of Brooklyn, Corporal Knight graduated from Brooklyn High School. Following graduation, he enlisted in the service, and planned on a career in law enforcement after his military duty was completed. Throughout his journey in the military, Corporal Knight carried with him a strong foundation of faith, family and community. He quickly ascended through the ranks, and attained the title of Corporal. Corporal Knight's strong intellect and solid sense of integrity evenly matched his sense of duty and kindness toward others. Moreover, Corporal Knight's life reflected his generous heart and sincere concern for the welfare of others. He often and easily offered his assistance to anyone in need, without regard to his own sacrifice.

Mr. Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in honor and remembrance of Corporal Timothy A. Knight, whose heroic actions, commitment and bravery will be remembered always. I extend my deepest condolences to the family of Corporal Knight—his beloved wife and high school sweetheart, Gina M. Knight; his beloved baby daughter, Chloe; his beloved parents, W.C. Arrowood and Jeanne Knight; his beloved sisters and brothers, Karen, Michael, Samantha, David, Melanie, Sabrina and Brian; his beloved mother and father-in-law, Jackie Collins and Dean Delligatti; and his many extended family members and friends.

The significant sacrifice, service, and courage that defined the life of Corporal Timothy A. Knight will be forever honored and remembered by the entire Cleveland community, and the entire nation. And within the hearts of his family and friends, especially Gina and Chloe, the bonds of love and memories created in life by Corporal Knight will never be broken, and will live on for all time.

RECOGNIZING THE PEACE CORPS
VOLUNTEERS FROM OREGON'S
THIRD DISTRICT

HON. EARL BLUMENAUER

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 2, 2005

Mr. BLUMENAUER. Mr. Speaker, President Kennedy, speaking 44 years ago at the establishment of the Peace Corps, remarked that, "The initial reactions to the Peace Corps proposal are convincing proof that we have, in this country, an immense reservoir of such men and women—anxious to sacrifice their energies and time and toil to the cause of world peace and human progress." What was true in 1961 is true today; Peace Corps Volunteers are an outstanding group of men and women serving the cause of people everywhere.

During this National Peace Corps Week, I want to honor the service and commitment of the Peace Corps Volunteers from Oregon's 3rd Congressional District and express my pride in my fellow Oregonians who have chosen to devote years of their lives in service to others.

In particular, I want to recognize those Peace Corps Volunteers currently serving:
