Mr. Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in honoring Colonel Gustafson.

WELCOME HOME G.I. BILL

(Mr. EMANUEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, in every major war since the Revolution, the United States Congress has acknowledged our returning veterans for their service and sacrifice. In this proud tradition, last weekend I announced a Welcome Home G.I. Bill for the veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan. It is a bold new direction in helping our veterans achieve the success they so rightly deserve and earned.

The Welcome Home bill provides health care for up to 5 years for that member and their family if they cannot get it from their employer or lost it when they were overseas. The Welcome Home bill includes $75,000 for college education and waives the $1,800 fee required for the benefit. And, finally, it will offer them a tax-free $5,000 down payment on a home.

Most importantly, under the plan all returning veterans are treated equally whether they served in active duty, National Guard, or Reserve. Because their experience over there was the same, their benefit over here should be the same.

□ 1015

The Welcome Home Package is a small token for our appreciation for the debt of gratitude we can never fully repay.

Mr. Speaker, we do not owe our newest veterans a favor. We must repay one.

SAY NO TO FOREIGN LAW INFLUENCING AMERICAN COURT DECISIONS

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, George Washington once said that "history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of Republican Government." But the United States Supreme Court has taken to relying on foreign law and foreign documents when issuing opinions.

This week, the Supreme Court ruled that the Constitution forbids the execution of convicted killers who are under the age of 18 when they commit their heinous crimes. Many of us might agree with this decision, but the court used the laws of other countries and foreign documents to determine whether American laws on this should stand.

American laws are made by the people chosen by Americans to make them. That is a republic. The court has no right or authority to consider any other basis for legal opinion. In doing so, it only undermines the very structure under which it operates, the consent of the governed as defined by the United States Constitution.

Foreign law is still a baneful foe of our republican government.

NATIONAL MISSILE DEFENSE SYSTEM A LEMON

(Mr. KUCINICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, Canada has officially opted out of the laughably named National Missile Defense System. We should take a lesson from our neighbors. They knew the NMD has a terrible record; 10 highly artificial and carefully scripted flight intercept tests, only five resulting in hits. One hit occurred when the equivalent of an electronic "hit me" sign was put on a supposed attack missile.

The new booster rocket for the kill vehicle has a one-in-three success rate. That is a one-in-three chance of even getting off the ground. The Pentagon canceled nine of the original 20 tests to focus on building the system instead of testing it.

Today, the NMD benefits no one except a few contractors and their patrons. Meanwhile, the Canadians chose not to buy a lemon. Here we plant a lemon grove and then franchise lemonade stands.

CONGRATULATING DELL COMPUTER FOR NEW PLANT IN FORSYTH COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, today I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Dell for beginning construction last week on a new $100 million assembly plant in the Fifth District of North Carolina.

The 527,000 square foot facility set to open in Forsyth County this fall will be Dell's largest plant in the world. It will bring jobs to 700 people in its first year and employ up to 1,500 people within 5 years. Most of these jobs are expected to be new and most of them will go to local residents. The plant will join Dell's two other American manufacturing operations in Texas and Tennessee and produce Dell's OptiPlex and Dimension desktop computers.

Dell, which was named Fortune Magazine's "Most Admired Company" for 2004, will be a tremendous asset to the Fifth District. Its presence will attract other businesses and suppliers that will add millions of dollars to the local tax base and bring thousands of new jobs to the region.

I would like to thank the local leaders in Forsyth and surrounding counties for working so hard to make this possible. I am proud of the success in manufacturing coming from the Fifth District and look forward to many prosperous years at Dell.

WORKING TOGETHER AS DEMOCRATS TO IMPROVE SOCIAL SECURITY FOR ALL AMERICANS

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, there has been an ongoing discussion with the American public on what is good for them in the future and today. It is interesting that the American public, when you hand them the facts, understand the underpinnings of Social Security. Over 51 percent of them do not agree with the present plans offered by the administration to allegedly solve the solvency question on Social Security.

The American public understands what it means to take $1.5 trillion away from Social Security to establish a private savings account that does not equate to solvency; the American public understands that Social Security is an insurance plan; the American public understands that any solution must be bipartisan; and the American public understands that when you begin to engage and divide a nation on a generational gap, that you are not moving toward a solution, you are only moving toward divisiveness.

Social Security has endured since 1935. It has provided an umbrella on a rainy day. It is an insurance plan, a survivor's benefit, and it allows the disabled to live in dignity.

Fix Social Security, do not destroy it. The plan before us destroys it. We are prepared to work together as Democrats, as Americans, to solve it.

ECONOMY CONTINUES TO GROW

(Mr. STEARNS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, the economy continues to grow as a direct result of the President's economic policies and those of the Republican Congress. Here are a few facts to illustrate this.

In January, we saw 146,000 new jobs and witnessed the twentieth consecutive month of job gains in the United States.

The national unemployment rate is down to 5.2 percent, the lowest since September 2001.

Job creation was up in 48 of the 50 States last year, and unemployment was down in all regions of the country.

Mr. Speaker, opposing tax increases and endorsing pro-growth policies has led to job creation. We are increasing consumer confidence and ensuring that the American working families no longer bear the burdens that impede economic growth.

We will continue here in Congress the hard work so that this progress continues.

WAITING FOR DEMOCRAT PLAN TO FIX SOCIAL SECURITY

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, well, the month of January went by and nothing happened. The month of February went by and nothing happened. Here we are, it is March, as a matter of fact, it is March 3rd. It looks like nothing is going to happen from the Democrat side to address Social Security.

One more day has gone, one more day of rhetoric and denouncing what the President is going to do and denouncing what the Republicans are doing and scaring senior citizens. But, still, no plan from the Democrat party to save and protect Social Security.

Now, it is interesting, up until last week they were saying there is no problem, we like it how it is. And yet in a major policy shift for the Democrat party, the Democrat Committee Chairman, Howard Dean, also known as "Screaming Dean," pointed out in a quote at Cornell University, which, as you know, is not exactly a sanctuary for conservative thought in America, Dean pointed out that if Social Security were left alone for 30 years, its benefits would be reduced to 80 percent of what it is now. He acknowledged there were problems.

Thank goodness, hallelujah, we have a Democrat who admits there is a Social Security problem. That means maybe the month of March will not go by. Maybe by the end of March the Democrats will join us and come up with a plan. We welcome their ideas. We solicit their ideas. We want their support.

WAITING FOR REPUBLICANS TO PUT SOMETHING ON THE TABLE

(Mr. HASTINGS of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, my good friend the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. KINGSTON) motivated me to come to the floor when he suggests that the Democrats do not have a plan for Social Security.

I would say to my good friend, the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. KING-STON), it is the President of the United States that proposed that Social Security should be privatized. During the last recess, the President's Day recess, Democrats went home, and almost every one of the House Democrats, except 40, held town meetings. I want the gentleman to know that most of his colleagues did not hold town meetings on Social Security at all for the reason that you really do not want to put your plan on the table.

The Democrats are ready when you bring your plan. The last time I looked over there, you all were in charge. I do not recall that we have to do anything at all in that regard.

But we are going to fix Social Security. The question is, are you going to fix Medicare and Medicaid? Are you going to do something about prescription drugs? Are you going to do something about inadequate education, inadequate housing and inadequate jobs in this country? I think that is what we need to be looking at.

We will fix Social Security, if you put something on the table.

REPUBLICANS SEEKING BIPARTISANSHIP IN FIXING SOCIAL SECURITY

(Mr. COLE of Oklahoma asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. COLE of Oklahoma. I yield to the gentleman from Georgia.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding, and want to say to my good friend from Florida that I have always enjoyed working with my distinguished colleague from the south tip of the peninsula of Florida, the great State. But I want to say, even though we are the majority, we still want your ideas. We want the Democrat party to put a plan on the table.

On the subject of town meetings, I personally held nine town meetings. There is a lot of division out there as to what we should do, and that is why it should be done in a bipartisan way, and that is why I think everybody needs to come together.

And Mr. Speaker, I want to say this: I have not introduced the plan. If the gentleman would like to work with me on a plan, I would love to have the Hastings-Kingston bill, or the Kingston-Hastings bill, if we could do that, because I think it is important.

I know the gentleman's fondness for seniors. I have heard the gentleman speak fondly about his mom, and he has heard me speak fondly about my mom, and we owe it to both of them, and that is what we should be doing.

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield, let us do it.

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield further, I am ready to work with the gentleman.
