

RECOGNIZING THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF UNITED INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT ROBERTO SANTOS

HON. HENRY CUELLAR

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 9, 2005

Mr. CUELLAR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize United Independence School District Superintendent Roberto Santos for his many contributions to education in the City of Laredo.

Roberto Santos has been a longtime advocate for education in the State of Texas. He received his BA from St. Edward's University in Austin, and completed his Masters in Education at the University of Texas—Pan American campus.

Beginning in 1966 as a teacher at Laredo Independent School District, he worked his way up through successive positions in the educational system. He worked as Director of Human Resources, Assistant Superintendent for Support Services, and finally Superintendent of the entire United Independent School District, serving the students of Laredo.

Roberto Santos has also enriched the community through his work as a businessman. He began as an auto salesman in 1975, and has been owner or part owner of two businesses, Santos Auto Sales and Homeland Mobile Homes.

On top of all this, he has given his time and energy to a multitude of volunteer organizations. He served as President of the Texas Association of School Personnel Administrators and the Kiwanis Club, and served on the boards of the United Way, Laredo Community College, the Laredo South Girls Little League, and the City of Laredo Parks and Recreation. At each step, Roberto Santos has given of himself to make Laredo stronger, and to ensure a quality education for its children.

Mr. Speaker, United Independent School District Superintendent Roberto J. Santos' life is a model of community involvement, and I am pleased to have this opportunity to publicly thank him.

CONGRATULATING BRIGADIER GENERAL WILLIAM TERPELUK

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 9, 2005

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Brigadier General William Terpeluk who completes his term as Deputy Commander for the 77th Regional Readiness Command this month and thank him for his service to our nation. General Terpeluk served in this position from 31 March 2001–30 March 2005. He was Deputy Commander during 9–11 and through the War on Terror. He moves on in his military career later this month.

The 77th Regional Readiness Command is located in Fort Totten, New York. It is headquartered in Bayside, Queens, New York at historic Fort Totten, where the Reserve Command has been since 1968.

Brigadier General Terpeluk is an Infantry Officer who received his commission as a Second Lieutenant through the Reserve Officer Training Corps Program in 1974 from the Virginia Military Institute. After completing the Infantry Course at Fort Benning, Georgia, he served on Active Duty as the Executive Officer, Company E, 3d Battalion, 3d Basic Combat Training Brigade, Fort Dix, NJ.

His next assignment was as the Assistant Brigade S–1, 3d Basic Combat Training Brigade, Fort Dix, NJ. Brigadier General Terpeluk was then assigned to Korea where he functioned as the Executive Officer, HHC, 1st Battalion (M), 31st Infantry and Rifle Platoon Leader, Company B, 1st Battalion (M), 31st Infantry, Camp Casey, as well as Support Platoon Leader, 1st Battalion (M), 31st Infantry, Camp Howze, Korea.

In October of 1978, Brigadier General Terpeluk transitioned to the United States Army Reserve as the Executive Officer, and later as the Commander, of Company B, 1st Battalion (M), 315th Infantry, 157th Separate Infantry Brigade (M), Bristol, PA. Between February 1982 to May 86 he served as the Aide-de-Camp and Headquarters Commandant, Hqs, 79th United States Army Reserve Command, Willow Grove, PA. From May 86 to January 1993, Brigadier General Terpeluk served as the Executive Officer and Commander, 4074th Reception Battalion, 76th Division (Training), Willow Grove, PA. From January 1993 to July 94, he served as the Chief of Staff, 157th Separate Infantry Brigade (M), Horsham, PA.

After a year on Active Duty to complete the United States Army War College, Brigadier General Terpeluk returned to the Army Reserve as the Commander of the 1079th Garrison Support Unit from 1995 to 1997. Between 1997 to 2001, he performed as the Commander, 2d Brigade, 78th Division and the Assistant Chief of Staff, G3, for the 78th Division. On March 31, 2001, Brigadier General Terpeluk was assigned as the Deputy Commander of the 77th Regional Support Command.

Brigadier General Terpeluk's military awards include the Meritorious Service Medal with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Achievement Medal with 1 Oak Leaf Cluster, the Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal with Silver Oak Leaf Cluster, the National Defense Service Medal, the Armed Forces Reserve Medal with Silver Hourglass, the Army Service Ribbon and the Overseas Service Ribbons.

In his civilian capacity, Brigadier General Terpeluk is a Laboratory Manager for Merck Research Laboratories.

Again, Mr. Speaker, I want to thank General Terpeluk for his dedication and service to the United States Army and this great Nation. For over thirty-years, General Terpeluk has worn the uniform and sworn to protect the United States from all threats. His service can never fully be repaid, so I offer him my thanks, and the thanks of all my colleagues in the United States House of Representatives and wish him well and Godspeed in his future.

HONORING GEORGE ASTE FOR HIS MANY YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE AVIATION INDUSTRY

HON. JAMES L. OBERSTAR

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 9, 2005

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to George Aste, and to commend him for his dedication to the U.S. and international aviation industry. George Aste has been a leading figure in aviation for more than 40 years. He has held senior positions at United Airlines and Trans World Airlines, has advised American Airlines, and has participated in many U.S. international aviation matters for the last three decades.

The Air Transport Association recently acknowledged Mr. Aste for his exemplary service to the U.S. aviation industry. I would like to include ATA's resolution honoring Mr. Aste for his many years of dedication and leadership for the RECORD.

Be it hereby Resolved that the Air Transport Association Board of Directors commend George Aste for a lifetime commitment to the goals of commercial aviation both domestically and internationally.

For over forty years George Aste has been a leading figure in U.S. Aviation, holding executive positions at United Airlines and Trans World Airlines, continuing as a senior advisor to American Airlines.

He has participated in virtually all major U.S. international aviation matters for the last three decades.

Over the years, Mr. Aste has worked closely with U.S. Government agencies, as well as the U.S. Congress and State, City and local government officials throughout the country. He also dealt directly with many foreign government officials on international aviation matters.

Mr. Aste has dedicated much of his long illustrious career to the expansion and liberalization of international operations for U.S. air carriers.

Throughout, Mr. Aste has earned the respect of his colleagues for his extraordinary knowledge, unswerving honesty and boundless good cheer.

Therefore, the Air Transport Association wishes to commend and congratulate George Aste for his dedication to furthering U.S. Commercial aviation.

TRIBUTE TO THE GOLD FAMILY

HON. ERIC CANTOR

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 9, 2005

Mr. CANTOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Melinda and Merrill Gold on the birth of their twin daughters, Eliana Paige and Molly Gabrielle. Born February 12, 2005, Eliana and Molly are named in loving memory of their great grandmothers Ita Akerman and Mollie Freedman. Mr. Speaker, I hope you will join me in wishing the Gold family great happiness and joy in the coming years.
