TRANSPORTATION EQUITY ACT: A LEGACY FOR USERS

HON. ROBERT E. ANDREWS

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 15, 2005

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, my statement on March 10, 2005 during consideration of H. Res. 144 was specifically about my support for the Pascrell/Menendez/LoBiondo Pay-to-Play amendment, rather than the rule itself. Most importantly, I would like to thank Representatives PASCRELL, MENENDEZ, and LOBIONDO for their steadfast work on ensuring that New Jersey maintains the right to reform its ethical standards.

RECOGNIZING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF HAYS COUNTY COMMISSIONER DEBBIE GONZALES INGALSBE

HON. HENRY CUELLAR

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 15, 2005

Mr. CUELLAR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Hays County Commissioner Debbie Gonzales Ingalsbe for her accomplishments in public service.

Ms. Ingalsbe comes from a family with a tradition of public service—her father was also a Hays County commissioner. She is a lifelong resident of San Marcos, and has the distinction of being the first female commissioner in Hays County history.

Ms. Ingalsbe began her career in service as a deputy constable after graduating from the Travis County Sheriff's Academy. She has worked tirelessly as commissioner to improve the quality of life in Hays County. She has been especially involved in the issue of health care. She directed all of the county's tobacco settlement funds toward public health, permitting Hays County to build one of the most comprehensive and advanced public health facilities in the State.

Commissioner Ingalsbe continues to give of her time and energy to make the San Marcos area a better place to live. She is a member of a long list of community organizations, including San Marcos EMS, the Hays/Caldwell County Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse, and the San Marcos Area Food Bank. Her commitment to her fellow citizens is laudable.

Mr. Speaker, I am honored to have had this opportunity to recognize the many achievements of Hays County Commissioner Debbie Ingalsbe.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

CONGRATULATING CAROL AND DAVID GREENWALD AS THEY RECEIVE COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD FROM SELIGMAN J. STRAUSS LODGE NO. 139 OF B'NAI B'RITH

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 15, 2005

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to Dr. David Greenwald and Carol Saidman Greenwald of Kingston, who have been selected to receive the Seligman J. Strauss Lodge No. 139 of B'nai B'rith Community Service Award. They received the award at the 59th annual B'nai B'rith Lincoln Day Dinner at the Woodlands Inn and Resort in Plains.

The Community Service Award is presented to outstanding citizens who, by their courageous leadership and dedication on behalf of humanity, have made a valuable contribution to the fabric of our society. David and Carol exemplify these criteria because of their dedication to making their community a better place.

David is the founder of Medical Oncology Associates. He currently serves as chairman of the Cancer Committee of Wyoming Valley Health Care System and serves on the board of the Jewish Community Center and the Board of Trustees of Wyoming Seminary. He has served as past president of the Jewish Federation and past chairman of the United Jewish Campaign of the Wyoming Valley. He is a past board member of the United Way. David has served as Chief of Hematology/Oncology of Medical Staff of the Wyoming Valley Health Care System. David was a past president of the Medical Staff and was recently elected as president-elect.

David is a Magna Cum Laude 1966 graduate of Wilkes University and an Honor graduate of Temple University School of Medicine where he was named to Alpha Omega Alpha, the National Medical School Honor Society. David is a member of the Luzerne County Medical Society, the Pennsylvania Medical Society and a Diplomat of the American College of Physicians with board certifications in both Internal Medicine and the subspecialty of Medical Oncology. He was instrumental in establishing the Medical Oncology Patient Prescription Fund, a charitable endeavor that provides prescription assistance to cancer patients in need.

Carol is a National Certified and Licensed Professional Counselor and a Certified Grief and Death Education Therapist. She is also a Certified Sexual Assault and Domestic Abuse Counselor. She is a counselor at Medical Oncology Associates and a partner in Pierce Counseling, a private practice specializing in individual and family counseling. Additionally, Carol volunteers as a rape crisis counselor for the Victims Resource Center.

Carol was president of Hadassah from 1983-1985, a former president of Wyoming Seminary Upper School Parents Council and a member of the Wyoming Seminary Board of Trustees. She has served as a member of the Temple Israel Board of Trustees and the Boards of Directors of the Jewish Community Center of Wyoming Valley and the Victims Resource Center. Carol also served as the United Jewish Appeal Campaign co-chairperson and vice president of the Jewish Federation of Greater Wilkes-Barre. Carol is a member of the American Counseling Association, the American Psychological Association, and the Association of Death Education and Counseling. She is a graduate of the 2000 class of Leadership Wilkes-Barre.

Carol graduated from Wilkes University in 1966 and in 1996 received a masters degree in community counseling from the University of Scranton. She was admitted to Chi Omega Iota, the International Counseling Honor Society, and was listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Carol and David live in Kingston and are the parents of six children: Rachel, who is married to Jay Skaistis; Hannah; Nathaniel; Sarah; Naomi; and Zachary. They have one granddaughter, Talia Rose Skaistis.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating this couple who has given so much of their time and talents to their community and are most deserving of this award.

CONGRATULATING FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON UNIVERSITY ON THE 2005 NORTHEAST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE

HON. STEVEN R. ROTHMAN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 15, 2005

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with great pleasure to honor and commend the Fairleigh Dickinson University Men's Basketball Team, the Knights, who won the 2005 Northeast Conference Championship (NEC) game on March 9, 2005. The Knights are returning to the 2005 NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1998, and will face number one ranked Illinois on March 17 in Indianapolis.

The Knights hosted the NEC Tournament championship game last Wednesday evening, March 9th, at their home court in Hackensack, NJ, where they secured a hard fought win over the Wagner College Seahawks by a score of 58-52. The highlights of the game included Center Andrea Crosariol scoring 18 points, just two points shy of his career high, and junior guard Chad Timberlake scoring 11 points. Senior guard Mensah Peterson scored 7 of his 13 points in the final 3 minutes, with an impressive 3-point shot made with 24 seconds left on the clock to secure the Knights' triumph.

Head coach, Tom Green has had his fair share of accomplishments during his 22 years at Fairleigh Dickinson University. He has led the Knights to 17 winning seasons, 15 NEC Tournament semi-final appearances and eight NEC Championship games.

Today, Coach Green continues to lead a team of talented and bright young men. Junior forward Gordon Klaiber was named to the All-NEC First Team and senior guard Tamien
