

music unequaled by any other single performer."

Isaac Hayes hailed from humble beginnings in Covington, Tennessee. He spent his childhood and formative years in Memphis, years which shaped his future success as a songwriter, singer, and actor, graduating from Manassas High School. Undoubtedly, Isaac's influences can be attributed to his time spent in church singing gospel music with the Morning Stars, doo-wop with Sir Isaac & the Doo-Dads, the Teen Tones and the Ambassadors. Isaac Hayes became a soul music icon with his debut album, "Hot Buttered Soul," in 1969.

His signature single and album "The Theme From Shaft," came 2 years later winning an Academy Award for Best Original Song, the first Academy Award received by an African-American in a non-acting category, and two Grammys, one for composer of Best Original Score and one for Best Instrumental Arrangement with co-arranger Johnny Allen.

Isaac Hayes will also be mourned by his Stax records songwriting and production partner, David Porter, with whom he wrote over 200 songs, including many classic hits such as: "Soul Man," "When Something Is Wrong With My Baby," and "Hold on I'm Comin'," recorded by Sam and Dave, and "B-A-B-Y" made famous by Carla Thomas. The music created by Isaac and David embodies the funky, gritty and soulful Memphis sound and both gentlemen were both inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 2002.

Isaac Hayes was instrumental in staging the 1972 Wattstax concert performed at the Los Angeles Coliseum in the summer of 1972, an event that was a great source of pride for the African American Los Angeles community of Watts and which focused worldwide attention on issues of social and economic justice for that beleaguered community while also highlighting the great Memphis Stax sound.

Through his early days at Stax Records, his success as a recording artist, his record-breaking international performances and his career in film and television, Isaac Hayes, our hometown hero, always proudly referred to his Memphis roots. Isaac served as an ambassador of Memphis' spirit and soul and, like Moses, is irreplaceable.

Whereas Isaac Hayes started the Isaac Hayes Foundation, whose mission is to globally promote literacy, music education, nutritional education, and innovative programs to raise self-esteem among the underprivileged;

Whereas Isaac Hayes was strongly devoted to promoting literacy through the world and was named the international spokesman for the Applied Scholastics' World Literacy Crusade;

Whereas Isaac Hayes, through his Isaac Hayes Foundation, built an 8,000 square foot educational facility in Ghana, West Africa, and was a strong advocate for the education and well-being of the children of Ghana; In 1992, in recognition of his humanitarian work, he was crowned an honorary king of Ghana's Ada district.

Whereas Isaac Hayes donated thousands of dollars, through grants from his Isaac Hayes Foundation, to schools in Memphis, Nashville, and Washington, DC for the purpose of improving the musical education programs of those schools and for the purchase of musical instruments;

Today is a day of both great sadness and joy—sadness that Isaac has left us too soon and joy that we were fortunate enough to have known him. Isaac was a personal friend and a supporter in my re-election bid, actively participating in my campaign. I appreciate his talent, his contributions to his fellow man and his friendship. He rose from the most humble of beginnings to fame and wealth but he never forgot where he came from and he retained his love and respect for his fellow human beings. Being in the presence of Isaac made one want to be a better person, to do good. There will never be another like him.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentlewoman from Tennessee for introducing this resolution. I rise today to show support for House Resolution 1425, honoring the life and music of the late Isaac Hayes.

Mr. Hayes's absence will be felt by millions around the world. A prolific hall of fame songwriter, a fighter for civil rights and an entertainer to millions throughout his life, I ask that Congress now honor his life and his achievements.

Isaac Hayes's life should serve as an example to us all. Being orphaned shortly after his birth, Mr. Hayes started a lifelong trend of overcoming adversity. His grandfather, who was taking care of him, died when Isaac was only 11 years old. Wanting to contribute to his family, he took odd jobs around town to help his grandmother out.

His love of music started when he was only 5 years old. Turned on to music by singing at his church, he taught himself to play multiple instruments. Soon, he was singing backup to bands and it wasn't long before he would be out on his own singing and producing other young aspiring artists.

His civil rights credentials weren't too shabby either. In 1972, he helped stage a concert in Los Angeles that focused on social and economic issues. Never forgetting his roots, this concert also brought attention to his hometown Memphis sound.

Isaac Hayes was the best among us. His strength and character are a beacon of light for us all. This legislation will honor the life of one of the great ones of our time.

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. SCOTT) that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, H. Res. 1425.

The question was taken.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. In the opinion of the Chair, two-thirds being in the affirmative, the ayes have it.

Mr. ISSA. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.

PRIVILEGED REPORT ON RESOLUTION RECOMMENDING THAT THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FIND KARL ROVE IN CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS FOR REFUSAL TO COMPLY WITH A SUBPOENA DULY ISSUED BY THE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia, from the Committee on the Judiciary, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 110-847) on the resolution recommending that the House of Representatives find Karl Rove in contempt of Congress for refusal to comply with a subpoena duly issued by the Committee on the Judiciary, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.
