

teacher at Northeast High School in Oakland Park, Florida. Mrs. Flinn was selected as one of only 10 Society for Science & the Public fellows in the entire country. She earned this honor for her hard work inspiring excellence in scientific thinking and research among her students.

The SSP fellowship includes an award of $8,500 for Mrs. Flinn to use directly in her classroom and full support to attend a Fellows Institute here in Washington, where I will have the personal pleasure of thanking her for her contributions to our schools and our community.

My mother was a public school teacher, and I personally know how hard they work to help our children learn and grow. And that's why Mrs. Flinn and her actions in shaping our future leaders and scientists of our country and her efforts are an inspiration to all of us.

Thank you to Randa Flinn and to all the teachers in south Florida.

FY 2010 EMERGENCY SUPPLEMENTAL

(Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, enough is enough. The Democrats' failure to lead is now putting a strain on the troops by refusing to pass a clean emergency supplemental war bill. Yesterday, the Pentagon announced that it's putting together an emergency plan in case Congress fails to do its job and does not pass the upcoming supplemental. If the Democrats continue to play political games with this bill, the Pentagon will not be able to make payroll for active duty troops at war. This is a disgrace.

Funding our troops is a national priority. Our brave men and women in uniform do not deserve to suffer because the majority party cannot agree on the precise amount of pork they want to put into this wartime supplemental bill.

We need to pass a clean supplemental, and we need to do it today. I'm tired of excuses, tired of the bickering. Let's put aside election day politics and do the right thing for the troops.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

(Mr. HEINRICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HEINRICH. Mr. Speaker, the people of New Mexico's First Congressional District are deeply saddened by the tragic shooting that took place at the Emcore manufacturing plant in Albuquerque on Monday morning.

In a brutal act of workplace domestic violence, six community members were victimized, including Michele Turner and Sharon Cunningham, who were killed, and four others who were wounded.

This kind of tragedy is every community's nightmare, but this tragedy must also recommit all of us to confronting and preventing the serious problem of domestic violence to insure that a tragedy like this never happens again.

We are grateful for the heroic actions of the many Emcore employees, as well as Albuquerque's police and first responders who arrived on scene within minutes of the first call, and some of whom rushed into the active shooter situation without waiting for back up.

We hold the victims in our hearts. We pray for all touched by this, and we will find the strength as a community to come together and overcome.

IT'S TIME FOR NEW IDEAS

(Mr. PENCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, in the worst economy in a quarter of a century, American families are hurting. Businesses are struggling in the city and on the farm. And that's obvious to almost everyone in this country, except the Obama administration.

Remarkably, yesterday the White House issued a report saying that the stimulus bill passed a year and a half ago had "saved or created 2.5 to 3.6 million jobs."

As my three teenagers might say to me in like circumstances: Really, 2.5 to 3.6 million jobs? Unemployment was 7.5 percent when the stimulus was passed. It's 9.5 percent today.

It's important the American people know that the report issued by the administration yesterday isn't even based on actual numbers. It comes from what economists within the administration say is a highly inflated projection of how much economic growth is created for every government dollar that's spent.

The facts come from the Bureau of Labor Statistics. They speak for themselves. Since the stimulus was enacted, more than 3 million jobs have been lost in this country, a net job loss of 2.4 million jobs.

Enough with the talk. The stimulus bill has failed. It's time for new ideas, across-the-board tax relief, and fiscal discipline now.

FLOOD INSURANCE REFORM

(Mr. MCNERNEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MCNERNEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of today's flood insurance reform legislation, but also to express my deep frustration with FEMA's decision to increase flood insurance rates for many residents of Stockton, California.

Prior to issuing new flood maps last year for central Stockton, FEMA encouraged residents to purchase flood insurance early so they could take advantage of the lower-cost preferred rates. In May, FEMA decided to extend those preferred rates for 2 years, a welcome decision.

But for reasons that remain difficult to understand, FEMA delayed the effective date of extension until January of 2011, effectively creating a donut hole in the availability of preferred rate coverage. As a result, residents who must renew their policies before the end of the year are suffering rates many times higher than what they expected, placing a serious burden on family budgets.

I urge FEMA, in the strongest possible terms, to allow Stockton residents to renew their policies without delay.
