SENATE—Thursday, July 15, 2010

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable KIRSTEN E. GILLIBRAND, a Senator from the State of New York.

PRAYER

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Today's opening prayer will be offered by the Reverend Donna R. Kafer, Chaplain of the Arizona State Legislature.

The guest Chaplain offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Dear Holy and Righteous Father, we come before You this day with humble hearts, thoughtful minds, and a profound understanding of Your majesty.

As the Senate body convenes today, I ask, Lord, that You give each and every one of our Senators a unique sense of their role in shaping this great Nation. We understand this mantle of leadership holds a great measure of responsibility, so we petition You, Father, to impart Your wisdom, peace, and comfort to each one of them. Provide them, Lord, with clarity of mind, vision for the future, and a renewed sense of purpose. Fill their hearts with compassion, discernment, focus, and the strength to meet the complex tasks at hand. Father, give them complete health: mentally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Embrace them with Your love that they may know Your boundless affection for them and Your indepth concern for their well-being. We thank You, Lord, for hearing our petitions this day.

It is in Your precious Name we pray. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable KIRSTEN E. GILLIBRAND led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

U.S. SENATE,

To the Senate:

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Under the previous order, the leadership time is reserved.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MINORITY LEADER

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Arizona.

WELCOMING THE GUEST CHAPLAIN

Mr. KYL. Madam President, it is my honor to help host our guest Chaplain from Arizona, Rev. Donna Kafer. On behalf of Senator MCCAIN and myself, I thank the Senate Chaplain and all others who have been so courteous to Reverend Kafer on her visit to Washington. She, I understand from the Chaplain, is the first legislative chaplain to provide the opening prayer in the Senate and only the second woman to have done so. There are milestones achieved today, and we appreciate her being with us.

She has been the chaplain at the Arizona State Legislature for over 10 years through her nonprofit organization called Leadership Challenge of Arizona. She also serves as the Arizona area coordinator of the Daughters of Destiny Network, which is a women's prison ministry based out of Colorado Springs. She travels throughout the United States sharing her testimony with incarcerated women, encouraging them and sharing the freedom that is offered through the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

Donna is an Arizona native. She and her husband Ross, a firefighter paramedic for almost 20 years, live in the Phoenix metropolitan area and have a daughter, Andrea Elizabeth.

It is our proud opportunity to help to host her today and thank her for opening the Senate with that beautiful prayer.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The majority leader is recognized.

Mr. REID. Madam President, every Thursday Senator ENSIGN and I greet people from Nevada. We had a lot of them today. I was late getting here. I am sorry to have missed the prayer. But I will read the prayer and recognize what Senator KYL said about the guest Chaplain. She is welcomed to the Senate.

SCHEDULE

Mr. REID. Madam President, following leader remarks, the Senate will resume consideration of the conference report to accompany H.R. 4173, which is the Wall Street reform legislation. At about 11 a.m. this morning, the Senate will proceed to a rollcall vote on the motion to invoke cloture on that conference report. If cloture is invoked, we would like to yield back some of the postcloture debate time so we may complete action on the Wall Street reform legislation today. There could be additional rollcall votes this afternoon.

For the benefit of Senators, I have spoken to the two Republican leaders. We still have some hope of being able to set up votes on the small business jobs bill. I hope we can do that; otherwise, we will have to proceed to a cloture vote on that sometime next week.

MEASURE PLACED ON THE CALENDAR—S. 3588

Mr. REID. Madam President, S. 3588 is at the desk and due for a second reading.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will read the bill for the second time.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 3588) to limit the moratorium on certain permitting and drilling activities issued by the Secretary of the Interior, and for other purposes.

Mr. REID. I object to any further proceedings with respect to this bill.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Objection is heard. The bill will be placed on the calendar.

WALL STREET REFORM AND CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT—CONFERENCE REPORT

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Under the previous order, the Senate will resume consideration of the conference report to accompany H.R. 4173, which the clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

Conference report to accompany H.R. 4173, to provide for financial regulatory reform, to protect consumers and investors, to enhance Federal understanding of insurance issues, to
