submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 327]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 327, by a nonrecord vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for the consideration of H.R. 1993, the Export Enhancement Act of 1999, under a modified open rule. The rule provides one hour of general debate divided equally between the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on International Relations.

The rule makes in order the Committee on International Relations amendment in the nature of a substitute which shall be considered as an original bill for the purpose of amendment. The rule provides that the bill shall be open to amendment by section. The rule provides for the consideration of only pro forma amendments and those amendments preprinted in the Congressional Record prior to their consideration, which may be offered only by the Member who caused it to be printed or his designee, and shall be considered as read.

The rule allows the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone votes during consideration of the bill and to reduce voting time to five minutes on a postponed question if the vote follows a fifteen minute vote. Finally, the rule provides for one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.
