PROVIDING THAT THE PUEBLO OF SANTA CLARA MAY
LEASE FOR 99 YEARS CERTAIN RESTRICTED LAND,
AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

Mr. HOEVEN, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany S. 249]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Indian Affairs, to which was referred the bill (S. 249) to amend the Long Term Leasing Act to provide that the Pueblo of Santa Clara may lease for 99 years certain restricted land, and for other purposes, reports favorably and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the bill, S. 249, is to amend the Long Term Leasing Act to clarify that the Pueblos of Santa Clara and Ohkay Owingeh are authorized to lease their respective tribal trust and restricted fee lands for up to 99 years. Many of the tribal lands within these Pueblos' respective reservations are held in restricted fee simple, in addition to those lands that are held in trust by the United States.

NEED FOR LEGISLATION

The bill, S. 249, would allow the Pueblos of Santa Clara and Ohkay Owingeh to lease certain types of land located within the Santa Clara Pueblo Grant for purposes of economic development. This legislation would make clear under the Long Term Leasing Act that these Pueblos may lease restricted fee lands up to 99 years.

BACKGROUND

The Pueblo of Santa Clara is located in New Mexico beside the Rio Grande River north of the city Santa Fe, near the city of Española. According to the Department of the Interior, the Pueblo has approximately 2,800 enrolled members.<sup>1</sup> Currently, the Pueblo of the Santa Clara reservation is comprised of land granted from the Spanish by land grant,<sup>2</sup> and reservation land established in 1905 by Executive Order.<sup>3</sup> The land grant was confirmed by Congress on December 22, 1858<sup>4</sup> and patented on November 15, 1909.<sup>5</sup>

The Pueblo of Ohkay Owingeh is located along the Rio Grande River 25 miles north of Santa Fe, New Mexico. According to the Department of the Interior, the Pueblo has approximately 2,723 enrolled members.<sup>6</sup> In 1897, the Supreme Court ruled that Indians were not considered to be allotted settlers and reduced the size of the land grant to approximately 5,000 acres.<sup>7</sup> Since that time, additional Ohkay Owingeh lands have been acquired.

On August 9, 1955, the Long Term Leasing Act<sup>8</sup> was enacted to allow Indian tribes to lease land to non-federal government entities for a period of 25 years. However, several amendments have been enacted to allow approximately fifty tribes to lease lands for a period of up to 99 years. In 1992, the Act was amended to authorize leasing of up to 99 years for lands held in trust for the Pueblo of Santa Clara<sup>9</sup> and for the Pueblo of Ohkay Owingeh in 2011.<sup>10</sup> But these amendments failed to include the long-term leasing authority for the restricted fee lands of these Pueblos. This bill would authorize such long-term leasing for these Pueblo lands.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

During the 114th Congress, Senator Udall and cosponsor Senator Heinrich introduced S. 2916, the predecessor bill which is identical to S. 249. The Committee held a legislative hearing on May 18, 2016, at which the Director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs testified in support. On December 20, 2016, S. 2916 was reported favorably by voice vote. No further action occurred prior to adjournment of the 114th Congress.

This bill, S. 249, was introduced February 1, 2017, by Senator Udall and again co-sponsored by Senator Heinrich. On February 8, 2017, the Committee held a duly called business meeting at which the bill was considered. No amendments were filed to the bill. The Committee favorably reported the bill by voice vote.

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF BILL AS ORDERED REPORTED

Section 1

This section amends the Act of August 9, 1955 (commonly known as the Long Term Leasing Act) by allowing the Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo and the Pueblo of the Santa Clara to make leases for up to 99 years and other technical corrections.

COST AND BUDGETARY CONSIDERATIONS

The following cost estimate, as provided by the Congressional Budget Office, dated February 17, 2017, was prepared for S. 249:

Hon. JOHN HOEVEN,
Chairman, Committee on Indian Affairs,
U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has prepared the enclosed cost estimate for S. 249, a bill to provide that the Pueblo of Santa Clara may lease for 99 years certain restricted land, and for other purposes.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Robert Reese.

Sincerely,

KEITH HALL.

Enclosure.

S. 249—A bill to provide that the Pueblo of Santa Clara may lease for 99 years certain restricted land, and for other purposes

Summary: S. 249 would authorize the Pueblo of Santa Clara and the Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo to lease tribal lands for up to 99 years. In general, under current law, the tribes can lease tribal lands to schools, businesses, and public entities for up to 25 years.

CBO estimates that implementing S. 249 would have no effect on the federal budget because any additional proceeds from such leases would accrue to the owners of the land. Enacting S. 249 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply.

CBO estimates that enacting S. 249 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2028.

S. 249 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act. The Pueblo of Santa Clara and the Ohkay Owingeh Pueblo would benefit from provisions in the bill allowing the tribes to lease land for up to 99 years, regardless of the trust status of the land.

The CBO staff contacts for this estimate are Robert Reese (for federal costs) and Rachel Austin (for intergovernmental mandates). The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

The Committee has received no communications from the Executive Branch regarding S. 249.

REGULATORY AND PAPERWORK IMPACT STATEMENT

Paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate requires each report accompanying a bill to evaluate the regulatory and paperwork impact that would be incurred in carrying out the bill. The Committee believes that S. 249 will have a minimal impact on regulatory or paperwork requirements.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW (CORDON RULE)

In compliance with subsection 12 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, changes to existing law made by S. 249, as ordered reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets and new matter is printed in italic):

(a) Authorized purposes; term; approval by Secretary. Any restricted Indian lands, whether tribally or individually owned, may be leased by the Indian owners, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, for public, religious, educational, recreational, residential, or business purposes, including the development or utilization of natural resources in connection with operations under such leases, for grazing purposes, and for those farming purposes which require the making of a substantial investment in the improvement of the land for the production of specialized crops as determined by said Secretary. All leases so granted shall be for a term of not to exceed twenty-five years, except leases of land located outside the boundaries of Indian reservations in the State of New Mexico, leases of land on the Aqua Caliente (Palm Springs) Reservation, the Dania Reservation, the Pueblo of Santa Ana (with the exception of the lands known as the "Santa Ana Pueblo Spanish Grant"), the reservation of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, land held in trust for the Coquille Indian Tribe, land held in trust for the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, land held in trust for the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians, land held in trust for the Klamath Tribes, and land held in trust for the Burns Paiute Tribe, the Moapa Indian Reservation, the Swinomish Indian Reservation, the Southern Ute Reservation, the Fort Mojave Reservation, the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, the Burns Paiute Reservation, the Coeur d'Alene Indian Reservation, the Kalispel Indian Reservation and land held in trust for the Kalispel Tribe of Indians, the Puyallup Tribe of Indians, [ ] the pueblo of Cochiti, Ohkay Owingeh pueblo, the pueblo of Pojoaque, the pueblo of Santa Clara, the pueblo of Tesuque, the pueblo of Zuni, the Hualapai Reservation, the Spokane Reservation, the San Carlos Apache Reservation, the Yavapai-Prescott Community Reservation, the Pyramid Lake Reservation, the Gila River Reservation, the Soboba Indian Reservation, the Viejas Indian Reservation, the Tulalip Indian Reservation, the Navajo Reservation, the Cabazon Indian Reservation, the Muckleshoot Indian Reservation and land held in trust for the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, the Mille Lacs Indian Reservation with respect to a lease between an entity established by the Mille Lacs Band of Chippewa Indians and the Minnesota Historical Society, leases of the [the] lands comprising the Moses Allotment Numbered 8 and the Moses Allotment Numbered 10, Chelan County, Washington, and lands held in trust for the Las
