

comments were received on either proposal to extend the compliance dates beyond 3 months, if necessary, in order to complete reconsideration and revision of the rules in question. As EPA finds that it is not able to complete the reconsideration and the regulatory action to the rule within the 3 month period, EPA is extending the compliance date until April 24, 1995. The EPA expects to complete the regulatory action on both petitions for reconsideration before the April compliance date.

Under section 307(b)(2) of the CAA, the requirements that are subject to today's notice may not be challenged later in civil or criminal proceedings brought by EPA to enforce these requirements.

Pursuant to the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 605(b), I hereby certify that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small business entities.
