This reorganization of the ACF staff offices will achieve several important objectives and create a high performance team with highly permeable borders across organizational lines to focus on stewardship, partnership, results and service to the customers both internally and externally.

These Chapters are amended as follows:

I. Delete Chapter K, "The Administration for Children and Families" in its entirety and replace with the following:

K.00 Mission
K.10 Organizations
K.20 Functions

K.00 Mission. The Administration for Children and Families (ACF) provides national leadership and direction to plan, manage and coordinate the nationwide administration of comprehensive and supportive programs for vulnerable children and families. The Administration oversees and finances a broad range of programs for children and families, including Native Americans, persons with developmental disabilities, refugees, and legalized aliens, to help them develop and grow toward a more independent, self-reliant life. These programs, carried out by state, county, city, and tribal governments, and public and private local agencies, are designed to promote stability, economic security, responsibility and self-sufficiency.

The Administration coordinates development and implementation of family-centered strategies, policies, and linkages among its programs, and with other federal and state programs serving children and families. The Administration's programs assist families in financial crisis, emphasizing short-term financial assistance, and education, training and employment for the long term. Its programs for children and youth focus on those children and youth with special problems, including children of low-income families, abused and neglected children, those in institutions or requiring adoption or foster family services, runaway youth, children with disabilities, migrant children, and Native American children. The Administration promotes the development of comprehensive and integrated community and home-based modes of service delivery where possible.

The Administration provides national leadership to develop and coordinate public and private programs and serves as a focal point for states in the provision of financial assistance and intervention programs which promote and support permanence for children and family stability. The Administration advises the Secretary on issues pertaining to children and families, including Native Americans, people with developmental disabilities, refugees and legalized aliens.

K.10 Organization. The Administration for Children and Families (ACF) is a principal operating division of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). The Administration is headed by the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families, who reports directly to the Secretary. The Assistant Secretary also serves as the Director of Child Support Enforcement. In addition the Assistant Secretary, the Administration consists of the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Program Operations, the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs, and Staff and Program Offices. ACF is organized as follows:

- Office of the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families (KA)
- Administration on Children, Youth and Families (KB)
- Administration on Developmental Disabilities (KC)
- Regional Office for Children and Families (KD 1-X)
- Administration for Native Americans (KE)
- Office of Child Support Enforcement (KF)—(which will remain as a separate organizational unit)
- Office of Community Services (KG)
- Office of Family Assistance (KH)
- Office of Regional Operations and State Systems (KJ)
- Office of Staff Development and Employee Relations (KL)
- Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation (KM)
- Office of Public Affairs (KN)
- Office of Program Support (KP)
- Office of Refugee Resettlement (KR)
- Office of Human Resources and Equal Employment Opportunity/Civil Rights (KS)
- Office of Legislative Affairs and Budget (KT)

K.30 Functions. The Administration develops, recommends and issues policies, procedures and interpretations to provide direction to the programs it administers. It directs reviews, provides consultation and conducts negotiations to achieve adherence to federal law and regulations for administration of its programs. It designs and administers systems and directs reviews of the programs to ensure cost-effectiveness, efficiency, quality, and financial integrity. The Administration provides technical assistance, conducts research and evaluation, and promotes information sharing for its programs. It also provides departmental leadership and guidance in the development and implementation of policies and standards applicable to state data systems development, information systems sharing, financial integrity, and quality assurance activities. The functions of the organizational elements of ACF are described in detail in successful chapters.

II. Delete Chapter KA, "The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families" in its entirety and replace as follows:

KA.00 Mission
KA.10 Organization
KA.20 Functions

KA.00 Mission. The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families provides executive direction, leadership, and guidance for all ACF programs. The Office provides national leadership to develop and coordinate public and private initiatives for carrying out programs which promote permanency placement planning, family stability and self-sufficiency. The Office advises the Secretary on issues affecting America's children and families, including Native Americans, persons with developmental disabilities, refugees and legalized aliens.

KA.10 Organization. The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families is headed by the Assistant Secretary who reports directly to the Secretary and consists of:

- The Office of the Assistant Secretary (KA)
- Executive Secretariat Office (KAB)
- President's Committee on Mental Retardation Staff (KAD)
- U.S. Advisory Board on Child Abuse and Neglect Staff (KAE)
- U.S. Commission on Child and Family Welfare Staff (KAF)

KA.20 Functions. A. The Office of the Assistant Secretary is responsible to the Secretary for carrying out ACF's mission and provides executive supervision to the major components of ACF.

These responsibilities include providing executive leadership and direction to plan and coordinate ACF program activities to assure their effectiveness, approving instructions, policies, publications, and grant awards issued by ACF, and representing ACF in relationships with governmental and non-governmental organizations. The Assistant Secretary for Children and Families also serves as the Director of the Office of Child Support Enforcement, and signs official Child Support Enforcement documents as the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families.

The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Program Operations serves as principal advisor and counsel to the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families on all aspects of strategic and operation management issues. The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Program Operations serves as ACF liaison to the General Counsel and, as appropriate, initiates action in securing resolution of legal matters relating to management of the agency, and represents the Assistant Secretary on all administrative litigation matters. The Deputy Assistant Secretary provides day-to-day executive leadership and direction for the Office of Human Resources and Equal Employment Opportunity/Civil Rights, Office of Staff Development and Employee Relations and the Executive Secretariat Office. The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Program Operations represents the Assistant Secretary in HHS and with other Federal agencies and task forces in defining objectives and priorities, and in coordinating activities associated with reinvention and continuous improvement initiatives.

The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs serves as the principal advisor and counsel to the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families on all aspects of legislation, policy, strategic planning, performance measures and demonstration testing, research, evaluation, intergovernmental affairs, budget formulation and media. The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs develops broad policy strategies and concepts pertaining to on-going and anticipated program issues and recommends legislation relevant to ACF programs. The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs formulates and presents ACF's program budgets; represents the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families in budget negotiations with the Department and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB); and assists in planning for and presenting the budget before the OMB and Congress. The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs represents the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families on intergovernmental matters, media affairs, and in contacts and negotiations with Congressional members and staff and executives of agencies and organizations. The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs provides executive leadership and direction to the Office of Legislative Affairs and Budget, the Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation and the Office of Public Affairs. The Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs also provides oversight for agency commissions and advisory committees, including the U.S. Advisory Board on Child Abuse and Neglect, the U.S. Commission on Child and Family Welfare and the President's Committee on Mental Retardation.

B. The Executive Secretariat Office ensures that issues requiring the attention of the Assistant Secretary, Deputy Assistant Secretaries and/or executive staff are addressed on a timely and coordinated basis; facilitates decisions on matters requiring immediate action including White House, congressional and secretarial assignments. It serves as the ACF liaison with the HHS Executive Secretariat. It receives, assesses and controls incoming correspondence and assignments to the appropriate ACF component(s) for response and action; provides assistance and advice to ACF staff on the development of responses to correspondence and on the controlled correspondence system; coordinates and/or prepares congressional correspondence; and tracks development of periodic reports and facilitates departmental clearance. The Director of the Executive Secretariat Office serves as the Freedom of Information Act Officer for ACF and coordinates hot line calls received by the Office of Inspector General and the General Accounting Office on ACF operations and personnel.

C. The President's Committee on Mental Retardation Staff (PCMR) provides general staff support for a Presidential-level advisory body, the President's Committee on Mental Retardation. It coordinates all meetings and congressional hearing arrangements; provides such advice and assistance in the areas of mental retardation as the President or Secretary may request; prepares and issues an annual report to the President concerning mental retardation and such additional reports or recommendations as the President may require or as PCMR may deem appropriate; and evaluates the national effort to prevent and ameliorate mental retardation. It works with other federal, state, and local governments and private sector organizations to achieve Presidential goals in mental retardation; develops and disseminates information to increase public awareness of mental retardation, to reduce its incidence, and to alleviate its effects. The Staff that supports the Committee reports to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs.

D. The National Advisory Board on Child Abuse and Neglect Staff Provides support and information pertaining to studies, research, or analyses of various matters affecting child abuse and neglect for the Board to use in its deliberations and recommendations. The Staff assists the Board in preparing and submitting to the Secretary and appropriate Committees of Congress an annual report with recommendations on ways in which the purposes of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act can effectively be achieved. The Staff makes arrangements for all meetings and hearings of the Board. The staff reports to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs.

E. The U.S. Commission on Child And Family Welfare Staff provides support pertaining to studies, research and analyses of various matters affecting families and children. The Commission's initial focus is on custody and visitation with an interest in keeping both parents involved in the emotional and financial support of their children. The staff assists the Commission by scheduling public hearings and forming panels of experts in family law, child welfare, child support and parents' and children's advocacy groups. The Staff assists the Commission in preparing an interim and final report to the Congress. The staff that supports the Commission reports to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and External Affairs.

III. Retitle Chapter KJ. "The Office of Information Systems Management/Child Support Information Systems" as the "Office of Regional Operations and Systems," and replace with the following:

KJ.00 Mission
KJ.10 Organization
KJ.20 Functions

KJ.00 Mission. The Office of Regional Operations and State Systems (OROSS) recommends to and advises the Assistant Secretary on all strategic and operational activities related to implementation of the agency's programs at the regional level. It oversees the performance and operation of all Regional Offices, and coordinates with program offices on strategies and implementation of program initiatives. It serves as the focal point for State automated systems funded with Federal financial participation for the Department. It coordinates ACF's development and implementation of strategies and policies related to payment integrity, electronic benefits transfer, welfare systems integration, and related initiatives and programs. It directs state systems activities on partnership, collaborative efforts, and technical assistance activities.

KJ.10 Organization. The Office of Regional Operations and State Systems is headed by a Director who reports to the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families. The Office is organized as follows:

- Office of the Director (KJA)
- Regional Operations Staff (KJB)
- Office of State Systems/Child Support Information Systems (KJC)

KJ.20 Functions. A. Office of the Director provides executive leadership for administering the agency's programs and initiatives at the regional level. The Director provides direction to the Regional Operations Staff and the Office of State Systems. The Director also serves as the Associate Deputy Director of Child Support Enforcement Systems and reports directly to the Director, Child Support Enforcement, on matters related to child support information systems. The Director is the principal advisor to the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families on region-related and State systems matters.

The Director supervises and supports the Regional Administrators in administering Regional Office activities and establishing and implementing cross-cutting program initiatives. The Director establishes coordinative arrangements with program and staff office directors to assure that the Regional Administrators can oversee operations, fulfill program responsibilities, and have access to needed information. The Director advises the Assistant Secretary of problems that could prevent the Regional Offices from carrying out the mission of ACF and the Department.

The Director represents the Assistant Secretary in HHS and with other Federal agencies and task forces on Region-related and State systems activities.

In conjunction with Program and Regional Offices, the Director provides the leadership of ACF's partnership and monitoring activities. The Director is jointly responsible with the Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation for implementing performance measures for ACF's goals and objectives.

Within the Office of the Director, administrative staff assist the Director in managing the administrative, personnel, and salaries and expenses activities for the Office of Regional Operations and State Systems.

B. The Regional Operations Staff develops and manages processes for liaison between ACF Regional Offices and the Assistant Secretary and program and staff offices in headquarters. The Staff supports Regional Offices by implementing and overseeing systems and procedures for communicating with and managing the workload emanating from the varied and diverse ACF Program Offices. The Staff monitors and evaluates Regional Office operations and makes plans for the utilization of regional resources to accomplish approved objectives. The Staff works with program offices to develop strategies for delivery of services to States and grantees.

C. The Office of State Systems/Child Support Information Systems oversees the Department's responsibilities for Federal financial participation in the funding of State automated systems for ACF programs. It coordinates ACF's development and implementation of strategies and policies related to payment integrity, electronic benefits transfer, welfare systems integration, and related initiatives and programs. It directs State systems activities on partnership, collaborative efforts, and technical assistance activities. It is headed by a Director who reports to the Director, Office of Regional Operations and State Systems. The Office consists of:

- Office of the Director (KJC1)
- State Systems Policy Staff (KJC2)
- Division of State Systems Approvals (KJC3)

• Division of Child Support Information Systems (KJC4)

1. The Office of the Director provides leadership for provision of technical assistance to States on information systems projects; and advances the use of computer technology in the administration of welfare and social services programs by States.

2. The State Systems Policy Staff is responsible for developing departmental policies and procedures under which States obtain Federal financial participation in the cost of automated systems development to support programs funded under the Social Security Act. It serves as the departmental focal point for the development and implementation of strategies and policies related to payment integrity, welfare systems integration and related initiatives and programs; and provides leadership and guidance to interagency work groups in these areas for the Department.

3. The Division of State Systems Approvals reviews, analyzes, and approves/disapproves State requests for Federal financial participation for automated systems development activities which support the AFDC, JOBS, Child Care, Head Start, Child Welfare, Foster Care, Social Services, and Refugee Resettlement programs. It provides assistance to States in developing or modifying automation plans to conform to Federal requirements. It monitors approved State systems development activities; conducts periodic reviews to assure State compliance with regulatory requirements applicable to automated systems supported by Federal financial participation. It provides guidance to States on functional requirements for these automated information systems. It promotes interstate transfer of existing automated systems and provides assistance and guidance to improve ACF's programs through the use of automated systems.

4. The Division of Child Support Information Systems is a separate organizational unit which reports to the Associate Deputy Director for Child Support Enforcement, who reports to the Director of Child Support Enforcement. The Division reviews, analyzes, and approves/disapproves State requests for Federal financial participation for automated systems development activities which support the Child Support program. It provides assistance to States in developing or modifying automation plans to conform to Federal requirements. It monitors approved State systems development activities; conducts periodic reviews to assure State compliance with regulatory requirements applicable to automated systems supported by Federal financial participation. It provides guidance to States on functional requirements for these automated information systems. It promotes interstate transfer of existing automated systems and provides assistance and guidance to improve ACF's programs through the use of automated systems.

V. Delete Chapter KL. "The Office of Management," retitle it as the "Office of Staff Development and Employee Relations" and replace with the following:

The Office of Staff Development and Employee Relations

KL.00 Mission

KL.10 Organization

KL.20 Functions

KL.00 Mission. The Office of Staff Development and Employee Relations (OSDER) serves as principal advisor to the Assistant Secretary and provides consultation, policy development, technical assistance and related services to all ACF components in the areas of training, staff development, organizational analysis, labor relations and employee relations.

KL.10 Organization. The Office of Staff Development and Employee Relations is headed by a Director who reports to the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Program Operations.

KL.20 Functions. The Office of Staff Development and Employee Relations provides leadership in directing and managing agency-wide staff development and training activities for ACF. The Office is responsible for the functional management of training and development in the agency, including policy development, guidance, and technical assistance and evaluation of all aspects of career, employee, supervisory, management, executive and organization development. Provides leadership in implementing the recommendations of the Staff Development and Training Team, by creating, managing/overseeing and monitoring an ACF training resource center and institutionalizing long-term developmental training for ACF employees.

The Office serves as the principal source of advice through the Deputy Assistant Secretary for Program Operations to the Assistant Secretary on organizational design by collaborating with staff to develop high-leverage, tailored solutions to achieve measurable outcomes and to transform the agency to a quality organization that supports ACF's vision, values and goals. The Office advises the Assistant Secretary on all aspects of ACF organizational analysis including: Planning for new organizational elements; and planning, organizing and performing studies, analysis and evaluations related to structural, functional and organizational issues, problems and policies to ensure organizational effectiveness. Conducts the review process for ACF reorganization proposals. Acts as liaison with the Assistant Secretary for Management and Budget to coordinate organizational proposals requiring Secretarial approval; prepares functional statements and official organizational charts. Administers ACF's system for review, approval, and documentation of delegations of authority and maintains the guidelines related to the delegations of authority.

Provides management advisory service on all labor management relations issues, including coordination and liaison with the Department. Plans and coordinates ACF-wide employee relations and labor relations activities including the application and interpretation of the Federal Labor-Management Relations Program, collective bargaining agreements and regulations. Pursues human relations innovations such as alternative dispute resolutions and serves as the focal point on all issues pertaining to the Labor-Management Partnership Council.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Under section 1115 of the Social Security Act (the Act), the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) may consider and approve research and demonstration proposals with a broad range of policy objectives. These demonstrations can lead to improvements in achieving the purposes of the Act.

In exercising her discretionary authority, the Secretary has developed a number of policies and procedures for reviewing proposals. On September 27, 1994, we published a notice in the Federal Register (59 FR 49249) that specified (1) the principles that we ordinarily will consider when approving or disapproving demonstration projects under the authority in section 1115(a) of the Act; (2) the procedures we expect States to use in involving the public in the development of proposed demonstration projects under section 1115; and (3) the procedures we ordinarily will follow in reviewing demonstration proposals. We are committed to a thorough and expeditious review of State requests to conduct such demonstrations.

II. Listing of New, Pending, Approved, and Withdrawn Proposals for the Month of May 1995

As part of our procedures, we publish a notice in the Federal Register with a monthly listing of all new submissions, pending proposals, approvals, disapprovals, and withdrawn proposals. Proposals submitted in response to a grant solicitation or other competitive process are reported as received during the month that such grant or bid is awarded, so as to prevent interference with the awards process.
