SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title: The Services Integration Study
OMB Number: Not yet assigned
Expiration Date: N/A

Type of Request: New collection of information

Abstract: This study will assess the integration and coordination of community agencies and providers in providing health-related services to low-income women, as well as describe the factors that promote or inhibit integration and coordination. In addition, the study will examine the extent to which community providers who potentially could serve low-income pregnant women do not do so.

The study includes three surveys: (1) A survey of four experts in 30 communities knowledgeable about their local communities; (2) a survey of local health-related providers to create an inventory of services available for all pregnant women in each of 30 communities, and (3) a survey of those providers which provide services to low-income pregnant women. The third survey will include both organizational directors and line staff. Each of these data collection instruments will be administered to each respondent only once.

Estimate of Burden: Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 minutes for the expert survey; 21 minutes for the service resource inventory; and, 35 minutes for the provider survey.

Respondents: For the expert survey, the respondents are: The WIC clinic director, the director of the local Maternal and Child Health program, the public health clinic director and the local police department. For the resource inventory, the respondents are public and private organizations providing health-related services to pregnant women. For the provider survey, the respondents are the organizational directors and line staff.

Estimated Number of Respondents: For the expert survey, 120 respondents are estimated. For the resource inventory of providers, 900 respondents are estimated. For the provider survey, 2400 respondents are estimated.

Estimated Number of Responses per Respondent: One.

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: 1,620 hours. Copies of this information collection can be obtained from Leslie Christovich, Office of Analysis and Evaluation, Food and Consumer Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, 3101 Park Center Drive, Alexandria, VA 22302.

Dated: October 30, 1995.
