Amend functions to read:

F. The Office of Publications Management (OPM) (S1SJ):

1. OPM directs a comprehensive SSA-wide forms control, publication and distribution management program, including forms and publications design, photocomposition and electronic information dissemination (electronic publishing, on-line publishing/services, electronic reference materials and CD-ROM and multimedia production and delivery). It also provides SSA-wide special media services for visually impaired employees. It is responsible for administering the regulatory and procedural requirements governing SSA's collection of information from the public, stemming from the Paperwork Reduction Act and providing liaison services with the Office of Management and Budget. It also coordinates the Agency Administrative Instructions Manual System for printing, clearance and issuance of policy, standards and procedural instructions.

2. The Office coordinates and directs a comprehensive printing management program and administers the procurement of all SSA printing needs. It prepares the Agency's Comprehensive Printing Program Plan report for the Joint Committee on Printing (JCP) and provides liaison with the JCP and the Government Printing Office on policy and procedural issues. OPM plans, directs and administers the SSA mail policy program, including developing methodologies (e.g., presorting, barcoding, direct accountability, etc.) It provides liaison with the United States Postal Service in all national level mail management and operational policy negotiations and activities. It also administers agencywide mail management contracts.

3. The Office plans, directs and coordinates the SSA mail handling program, including the receipt, processing, and dispatch of all incoming and outgoing United States Postal Service mail for SSA headquarters. It provides inter-office mail service for SSA headquarters and priority delivery service in Washington, D.C. It administers oversight of necessary contracts such as the internal mail messenger service. It consolidates and processes outgoing mail from headquarters to District Offices, Branch Offices, Program Service Centers and Regional Offices, etc. It also processes computer-generated priority notices to SSA beneficiaries nationwide, using high-speed equipment to fold, insert and label mailings.

4. The office provides SSA in-house printing services for short turnaround work which cannot be procured commercially. It provides coordination, technical advice and guidance to Agency components on SSA's in-house printing operation. Services include camera and film stripping functions; printing of materials, including multi-color specialty work; providing bindery and finishing of materials such as collating cutting, folding, drilling, stitching and binding; shipping and distribution of all SSA in-house printing and commercially-produced printing, as needed, including boxing, shrinkfilming, envelope insertion and labeling packages. It delivers or arranges for delivery of all completed material. OPM is responsible for the reproduction of printed material, using reprographic equipment, which includes large scale specialty items such as space floor plans and blueprints. It is also responsible for the development of metal photo requests for Commissioner's citations, award plaques, signs, etc.

BILLING CODE 4190-29-P

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Office of Central American Affairs

[Public Notice 2326]

Filing Property Claims in Nicaragua

AGENCY: Office of Central American Affairs, Department of State.

ACTION: Notice.

The Government of Nicaragua has approved a Law of Property Stabilization, effective December 2, 1995. Article 11 of this law provides that

"The National Confiscation Review Committee shall, within 90 business days of the entry into force of this law, accept claims from persons whose real estate properties or other assets connected to the property have been affected by expropriations, confiscations, or occupations and who were unable to file such claims at the proper time, without prejudice to the rights established in the Civil Code. In this case once the administration jurisdiction has been selected, no judicial action may be taken. This provision does not apply to persons affected by Decree No. 3 of July 20, 1979 * * *

This Law pertains to an ongoing program of the Government of Nicaragua to review claims arising from confiscation or other taking by the previous Government of property located in Nicaragua. All persons who wish to preserve their right to make a claim against the Government of Nicaragua who have not already registered their claims, should therefore consider filing their claims with the National Confiscation Review Commission within the deadline imposed by Nicaraguan law. For more information about your rights under Nicaraguan law, you are advised to consult a local Nicaraguan attorney. The United States Government does not have any official role or responsibility in this program.

Claims may be filed through the Embassy of Nicaragua, 1627 New Hampshire Ave., N.W. Washington, D.C. 20009 (Telephone 202-939-6570); the Nicaraguan Consulate in Miami, 8370 W. Flagler St. #220, Miami, FL 33144 (Telephone 305-220-6900/03), or the Office on Property in Miami, 8370 W. Flagler St. #232, Miami, FL 33144, (Telephone 305-222-1350 or 305-222-4786.) Claims may also be filed directly with the Ministry of Finance, Vice Ministry on Property, Managua, Nicaragua (Telephone 011-505-2-285582 or 227082).
