Diamond Offshore Drilling, Incorporated A/K/A Diamond Offshore Management Company, Houston, Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on November 7, 1995, applicable to all workers of Diamond Offshore Drilling, Incorporated, Houston, Texas and other locations in various States. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 24, 1995 (60 FR 58103). The certification was amended January 18, 1996 to include workers of the subject firm located in the State of Texas who had their unemployment insurance (UI) taxes paid to Diamond Offshore Management Company.

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The Department is again amending the certification to include workers of the subject firm operating in various locations in the states of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi whose UI taxes were paid to Diamond Offshore Management Company. The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-31,504 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Diamond Offshore Drilling Incorporated, a/k/a Diamond Offshore Management Company, Houston, Texas (TA-W-31,504) with other locations in the following states: Texas (TA-W-31,504A), Alabama (TA-W-31,504B), Florida (TA-W-31,504C), Louisiana (TA-W-31,504D), and Mississippi (TA-W-31,504E) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 10, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC this 26th day of February 1996.

Russell T. Kile,
Acting Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

P & K Dress Corporation, Little Falls, New York; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to Section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, an investigation was initiated on December 11, 1995 in response to a worker at P & K Dress Corporation, Little Falls, New York.

An active certification covering the petitioning group of workers remains in effect (TA-W-31,710). Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 28th day of February, 1996.

Russell T. Kile,
Acting Program Manager, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Matsushita Electric Corporation of America Matsushita Logistics Company; Fort Worth, Texas, Notice of Revised Determination on Reconsideration

On January 22, 1996, the Department issued a negative determination for workers of Matsushita Electric Corporation of America, Matsushita Logistics Company, Ft. Worth, Texas, to apply for NAFTA-Transitional Adjustment Assistance (NAFTA-TAA). The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 6, 1996 (FR 61 FR 4487).

By letter of February 6, 1996, the petitioners requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's findings.

Findings on reconsideration show that the employees of the subject firm perform sales and warehousing services of electronic products for the parent company, Matsushita Electric Corporation of America. Investigations show sales and employment at the Fort Worth location declined during the time period of the investigation. Workers at the Fort Worth location may be certified only if their separation was caused importantly by a reduced demand for their services from a parent firm, a firm otherwise related to the subject firm by ownership, or a firm related by control. A NAFTA certification was issued for a producing facility of the parent company that imports electronic products from Mexico.

Conclusion

After careful review of the additional facts obtained on reconsideration, I conclude that increased imports of
