The Age 60 Rule

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Disposition of comments and notice of agency decisions; correction.

SUMMARY: This document makes a minor correction to the disposition of comments and notice of agency decisions regarding the "Age 60 Rule" published on Wednesday, December 20, 1995 (60 FR 65977).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mardi Ruth Thompson, AGC-200, Regulations Division, Office of the Chief Counsel, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20591, (202) 267-3073.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 11, 1995, the FAA issued a disposition of comments and notice of agency decisions, which explained the agency's decision not to propose to change the Age 60 Rule (14 CFR 121.383(c)). (60 FR 65977; December 20, 1995).

The Disposition also stated the agency's intention to deny numerous petitions for exemption from the Age 60 Rule. In describing the petitions for exemption, the FAA referred to reports prepared by Richard Golaszewski that petitioners had criticized, and cited reports made by Mr. Golaszewski in 1983, 1991, and 1993 (60 FR at 65979). However, the reference to the 1993 report was an editorial error, in that the 1993 report was not commented on by petitioners. Further, the 1993 report was into prepared for the FAA, and FAA did not have a copy of or rely on it in making its determinations or preparing the Disposition.

The sentence citing to the Golaszewski Reports at 60 FR 65979 should read as follows:

They state that studies used by the FAA in the past to justify the rule are flawed, including the NIH Study and the reports prepared by Richard Golaszewski
