DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Antitrust Division

United States v. Universal Shippers Association, Inc.; Proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(b)-(h), that a proposed Final Judgment, Stipulation, and Competitive Impact Statement have been filed with the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia in United States v. Universal Shippers Association, Inc., Civil No. 96-1154-A as to Universal Shippers Association, Inc.

The Complaint alleges that the defendant and Lykes Bros. Steamship Co., Inc. entered into a contract containing an "automatic rate differential clause," which required Lykes to charge competing shippers of wine and spirits from Europe to the United States rates for ocean transportation services that were at least 5% higher than Universal's for any lesser volume of cargo. This clause required maintenance of a 5% differential in favor of Universal at all times, thereby placing shippers who compete with Universal at a competitive disadvantage.

The proposed Final Judgment enjoins the defendant from maintaining, agreeing to, or enforcing an automatic rate differential clause in any of its contracts, and also requires defendant to establish an antitrust compliance program.

Public comment on the proposed Final Judgment is invited within the statutory 60-day comment period. Such comments and responses thereto will be published in the Federal Register and filed with the Court. Comments should be directed to Roger W. Fones, Chief, Transportation, Energy and Agriculture Section, Suite 500, U.S. Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, 325 Seventh Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20530 (telephone: 202/307-6351).

Rebecca P. Dick,

Deputy Director, Office of Operations, Antitrust Division.

3. In the event Plaintiff withdraws its consent or if the proposed Final Judgment is not entered pursuant to this Stipulation, this Stipulation shall be of no effect whatsoever, and the making of this Stipulation shall be without prejudice to any party in this or in any other proceeding.
